In the name of God Amen! I, James W. Hunt of the County of Carteret and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

1. In primis: I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Alice, Negress America, Phillis, Ann, Bird, Peter, Caroline, George and Priscilla, to her and her executors and administrators

Secondly: I lend unto my beloved wife Alice during her life or widowhood, all the rest and residue due of my negroes and their increase, and after her death, or in case she marries again, I give the said rest and residue of my said negroes or slaves, and their increase, to the children of my son William Hunt; provided however that my executors shall have full power and authority, and I do hereby invest them with the same, in case they should deem it expedient and most beneficial for the interests of my said wife and the children of my son William, to hire out the said rest or residue of my negroes or slaves during the lifetime or widowhood of my said wife, or to locate them on some plantation or farm to be procured by them for that purpose, and to work them thereon as to them may seem most fit and expedient, and the hires or profits arising from said slaves or negroes to pay to my said wife during her lifetime or widowhood, and upon the termination of the life or widowhood of my said wife, to surrender the said slaves to the children of my said son William, as their absolute property and estate.

Thirdly. I authorize and desire my executors to sell or otherwise dispose of, at either public or private sale, as to them may seem best and most expedient, all the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, and after the payment of my just debts I wish them to invest the sum of such sales, or put the same out at interest, that the said proceeds and interest may accumulate as a fund for my son Williams' children but it is my desire, and I do hereby direct and instruct my said executors, that if the situation and circumstances and necessities of my wife, should require the interest of any portion thereof, of the proceeds of said sales, for her maintenance, support and well being in life, to pay from time to time to my said wife Alice, the said interest or such portions thereof, as her said necessities may require, and upon the death or termination of the widowhood of my said wife, I give the said proceeds of said sales, or the part that may have accumulated thereto, to the children of my said son Williams.

Lastly. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my worthy friends, Leonidas Pigott, James Kenney, Ralph Howland, and Malachi B. Robertson, Executors of this my last will and testament.

First testimony whereof I have here set my hand and seal this 23rd day of August A.D. 1848.

Signed, sealed and P.W. Hunt published as his last will and testament in the presence of us, & who have attested the same in the presence of each other.

George Dill
Leonidas Pigott.

State of North Carolina } Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions
