T. L. Wade

Clerk Superior Court

In the name of God amen

I James H. Marshall of the County of Carteret and State of North Carolina being of sound mind, and considering the uncertainty of life, do therefore declare this to be my last Will and testament.

That is to say I herein give to my wife and her sister Caroline Marshall during the term of their natural lives, all that I possess both real and personal, and should Virginia W. Chadwick survive them, and Caroline Marshall my interest mentioned in the above Will is to be equally divided between Virginia W. Chadwick and my nephew Joseph L. Stanton during the term of her natural life and at her decease the whole named interest must go to Joseph L. Stanton and after he comes in full possession of this property, should his sister Mallie Stanton and Minnie M. Stanton become homeless he will share his home with them during their widowhood.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this the 20th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty seven.

James H. Marshall.

We at the request and in presence of the testator have signed our names as witnesses to this Will.

J. B. Davis

In the Superior Court, before the Clerk.

In the matter of the Will of James H. Marshall, deceased. The paper writing hereto attached, and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James H. Marshall, deceased is exhibited before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County, North Carolina, by Joseph L. Stanton, and thereupon the following proof thereof is taken by the oath and examination of Julia F. Read, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and of J. H. Taylor as follows.

North Carolina, Carteret County.
Julia F. Read, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

He is a subscribing witness to the said paper-writing now shown here, purporting to be the last will and testament of James H. Marshall, and that she saw James H. Marshall execute this writing as his last will and testament, and that affiant attested it in the presence and at the request of said James H. Marshall, deceased; and at the time of its execution said James H. Marshall, was, in affiant's opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

Affiant further swears that J. B. Davis, the other subscribing witness to said will, signed the same as a witness in the presence of affiant and that affiant saw him sign the same, and that said J. B. Davis is now dead.

John F. Read.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 20th day of August, 1909.

T. C. Wade,

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

North Carolina, Carteret County.

S. H. Taylor, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of J. B. Davis, one of the subscribing witnesses to the paper-writing purporting to be the will of James H. Marshall, deceased, which is hereto attached, dated the 20th day of December, 1897, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said J. B. Davis, subscribed as a witness to said will is in the genuine handwriting of the said J. B. Davis; and affiant further swears that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of James H. Marshall, deceased, whose will the attached paper-writing, dated the 20th day of December, 1897, purports to be, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said James H. Marshall subscribed to said will is in the genuine handwriting of the said James H. Marshall.

S. H. Taylor.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 21st day of August, 1909.

T. C. Wade,

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

And thereupon it is considered.

and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of James H. Marshall, deceased, and it is ordered that the same, with the foregoing examination and this certificate be recorded and filed.

This 21st day of August, 1909.

T. C. Wade,

Clerk of the Superior Court of Carteret County.

North Carolina }
Carteret County.

I George B. Physice, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First my Executrix, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, and pay all funeral expenses out of the first moneys which may come into her hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Joseph Ann Physice, the full or parcel of land on which I now reside, it being a part of lot number 167 of O.T. together with all improvements, also 1/4 of lot number 188 of O.T. together with all other property both real and personal which I may own at the time of my death.

Third, I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Joseph Ann Physice, my lawful executrix to have intente and powers to execute this my last and testament according to the true intente and meaning of the same, and long part and clause thereof, hereby revoking and disclaiming utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I the said George B. Physice doth hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of June 1907.

Geo. B. Physice
