

Mrs. M. C. Klein, the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of her death her name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attending witness thereof, and at the request and in the presence of the said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attending witness thereof, as aforesaid, the said Mrs. M. C. Klein was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

R. N. Bycock

E. H. Gorham

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 28th day of March 1913, before me.

T. C. Wade

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Barteret County. } ss.

It is therefore Considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Mrs. M. C. Klein deceased. Let the said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 28th day of March 1913.

T. C. Wade

Clerk Superior Court.

State of North Carolina } This indenture made this 10
Barteret County } day of Feb. 1913 Witnesseth

That I Jennings N. Bigott being of sound mind do Will & bequeath as follows - viz: After my death

I Give my wife Melina all of my personal property, Horses and Cattle and hope farming implements to have and have heirs and assigns forever and I also leave to her 6 acres of land in my front field and as far in the back field 28 yds from my back yard to the corner of the pasture fence thence east to the Guilford line to have and to hold as long as she lives and all of the building dwelling house barns stables gardens orchard and with all of the improvements thereon including my new barn a stables also including a privilege or right in the pasture to put her stock also a passway from the woods to the water and a right to cut wood or fencing anywhere on my wood land.

I also Give and bequeath to my single daughter Carrie Bigott and Laura Bigott the homestead, including that portion of the land upon which the dwelling house sits bounded as follows - beginning at the North West Corner of the yard as it now stands, and running in a easterly direction with pasture fence to Guilford line, thence in a southerly direction with said line to South East Corner of garden, thence with garden & yard fence in westerly direction to South West Corner of yard as it now stands, thence with yard railings to the beginning including house yard, garden, orchard & barn to have and to hold to their use and behoof forever. I also will that Laura act as Carrie's guardian.

I also will to Laura my daughter 5 acres in front field running parallel with Guilford line and being on East side of field, extending from passway on the north to the Streets on South -

To Carrie I will 5 acres next to Laura's on the East side of the said front field, and extending from passway on the north to Streets on the South - In both cases I will stick or have such stakes that will mark the line in each case -

To Eva B. Whitcomb I will 5 acres next to Carrie's in front field beginning at Carrie's line Counting West side and going from said passway on the north to Streets

To my son Herbert I give the remainder of said good field as it is now enclosed - being that part of the field west of Eva B. Whitehead's line to the fence on west side of said field as it now is, and extending from pasture on north to that on south - and to each of the aforesaid Children, Emma, Eva, and Herbert and also to my daughter Nettie Davis I will and bequeath equal rights in the pasture.

To Lizzie H. Davis & Adron B. Davis, sons of my daughter, Nettie Davis I will that they have the piece of land lying north of Joe Gelford's new cut road and south of main road that runs by Jennie Miller's place - and land as follows - beginning at a stake on north side of said road cut road in front of my gate, and running with said road in westerly direction to David Gelford's line thence with said line north to public road - thence with said road in an easterly direction to old road on eastern side of said land, thence with said old road to beginning, to them and their heirs forever - I will that the remainder of the wood land be equally divided among my children.

I further specify that the provisions of this paper pertaining to my children shall not go into effect until after the death of both me and my wife, except the Pastor rights aforesaid.

I further testify that this is my last will and testament.

Given under my hand and seal this 10th day of Feb. 1908.

Attest
John B. Lewis
David S. George.

Jennings N. Pigott (Decd)

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Barclay County. } ss.

A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of Jennings N. Pigott, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Melissa Pigott, one of the devisees therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Jennings N. Pigott by the oath and examination of John B. Lewis and David S. George, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of Jennings N. Pigott; that the said Jennings N. Pigott in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of Feb. 1908.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Jennings N. Pigott the testator aforesaid, died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Jennings N. Pigott was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

John B. Lewis
D. S. George

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 10th day of May 1913, before me.

F. C. Wade
Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Barclay County. } ss.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of Jennings N. Pigott, deceased. Let the said will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 10th day of May 1913.

F. C. Wade
Clerk Superior Court