

State of North Carolina, County of Beaufort Carters County, 3d Superior, August 18th 1858.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved in open Court by the oath of James M. Amey, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who swore that the testator, at the time of the execution of said will, was of sound and disposing mind and memory, and that she did it freely, without compulsion. It is ordered that said will be recorded.

Jas. Rumley C. C.

I, Judith Robinson of Portsmouth, County of Carteret and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following: that is to say, First, that my Executor (hereinafter named) shall pay all my funeral expenses, together with my just debts, owing and to whomsoever owing out of the monies that may first come into his hands as a part of my estate.

Item, I give and devise to all the children of my Brother Valentine Robinson my house and lot on Portsmouth where I now live, so as to include my dwelling house all out houses and other improvements to all in equal proportion, share and share alike, to them and each and every one of them their Executors administrators and assigns absolutely forever.

Item, I give and bequeath to my Brother Benjamin and Joseph to each one fourth of my personal estate of negroes, goods chattels of what kind and nature soever to them their heirs and assigns forever.

Item, I give and bequeath to the children of my nephew William Robinson and to the children of James and Emeline Wallace the remaining half of my personal estate is, (that is) one fourth of my personal property to the children of William Robinson and one fourth of my personal property to the children of James and Emeline Wallace to them their heirs and assigns forever.

And lastly, - I do hereby constitute and appoint my Brother Benjamin Robinson my lawful Executor of all intents and purposes to execute this my last

Will and Testament according to the true and meaning thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void, all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set hand and seal this the Twenty sixth day of January A.D. one thousand Eight hundred and fifty-two

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Judith Robinson to be her last will and Testament, in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses to the same.

Joseph Robinson

David R. Brooks

State of North Carolina, Court of Pleas and Sessions County of Currituck May Term A.D. 1852

The execution of the foregoing will is proved in open Court by the oath of David R. Brooks, one of the subscribing witnesses to, who swears that the Testatrix, at the time of the execution of the execution of said will was of sound and disposing mind and memory and that she did it freely without compulsion. It is ordered that said will be recorded. Whereupon Benjamin Robinson, the executor therein named, qualifies as such, and it is ordered that letters Testamentary issue according

Jas. Rumley C.

In the name of my Creator, Amen
I, Joseph Borden of the County of Currituck & State of North Carolina, the 30th of 4th Mo. 1823 being of sound and disposing memory and mind, do make and declare this my last will, and testament in manner and form following Viz

Impremise - (I give and bequeath unto my and wife Esther Borden the use of my plantation land I now live on that part between Harlow's Creek and the big bridge Creek or (gut) and with said Creek and branch to the public road) and all household and kitchen furniture with my farming utensils (during the term of her natural life). I also give my wife one ninth part of my moveable estate with one hundred dollars per annum to be paid by my executors, to her and her heirs.

I give and devise unto my son William Hull Borden all my land that I bought of Gabriel Holmes and his wife, with the land bought of William Lovett lying both sides of the blutfoot and Harlow's Creek Canal with the land I own adjoining and in the undivided tract with my sister Ann Ward and her children) also one hundred acres on the Mattamuskeet that part I bought of Thomas Jordan adjoining Samuel Cartwrights as wide on the back as on the Lake. To be by him enjoyed during his natural life without any impeachment of waste and after the decease of my son William Hull Borden, I give the same to the children of my said son who may be living at his death and his heirs forever, and if any of the children of my said son should die in his life leaving children such children shall take the share