In the Matter of the will of Emma J. Davis
Before Jno. D. Davis
Clerk Superior Court

Julius M. Davis being duly sworn, deposes that Emma J. Davis State of Davis County, is dead, having first made and published her last Will and Testament, and that Thomas D. Davis & Julius M. Davis are the executors named therein.

Further, that the property of the said Emma J. Davis consisting of land, town lots, money and watch & chain etc. is worth about $1000.00, so far as can be ascertained, at the date of this application, and that Mary D. Davis, Rascote G. Davis and Bettie D. Davis are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.

Clerk Superior Court

State of North Carolina,
Carter County

D. Emma J.

Davis, of the State and County aforesaid, being feeble in body, but sound and disposing in mind and memory, do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament. I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Mary D. my gold watch and chain: to my beloved son, Rascote G. my sleeve buttons & most church service and to my beloved daughter Bettie D. my gold bracelets and cross and chain. I also devise and bequeath to my children above named, all of my real estate, and the residue of my personal property, notes, accounts, cash on hand and due me, share & share alike, with this condition; that as my children are of tender years, I hereby authorize and direct their Guardian hereinafter named to sell a part or the whole of the property above devised and bequeathed to them for their maintenance and education. I name and appoint my beloved step sons Thomas D. and Julius M. Davis, my Executors without bond.

I constitute and appoint Julius M. Davis, Guardian without bond of my children, and I do hereby ratify my wish heretofore expressed that the said Guardian sell and I hereby authorize and direct him to sell a part or the whole of the property devised and bequeathed to my children under this will for their maintenance and education. And so devises and
