I, Martin F. Willis, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

First. My executor and trustee, hereafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give to my brother James Willis, my old Clock, the one I received from my father, and desire that said Clock may always be kept in our family.

Third. I give and bequeath unto my wife, Rebecca, to be immediately put in her possession at the time of my death, two beds, two bedsteads and bed clothing for same, and the lamps given to me by my father; I also give to her everything else of which I may die possessed, subject, however, to the Conditions and by the requirements of the fourth item of this my last will and Testament.

Fourth. I give and desire that my executor and trustee shall sell everything else of which I may die possessed, both real and personal property, and after paying all my just debts, to keep in his possession the balance of the proceeds of said sale and pay over to my said wife, Rebecca, in weekly or monthly installments such amounts of money as she may stand in need of. I desire that my said executor and trustee shall use his discretion as to the time he shall sell my real estate, so that if he cannot get a fair offer for the real property immediately after my death, he may rent the same until he can get what he considers a fair offer in money for the said real property.

Fifth. I hereby constitute and appoint my brother James Willis my lawful executor and trustee without bond, to execute this my last will and Testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof; and if he shall die or become incapacitated to perform the duties etc. as the executor and trustee of this my will, I hereby appoint in his place and stead my true friends D. C. Webb said executor and trustee of this my last will and Testament.
