

Edwin D. Martin

The subscribing witness Thence; who being duly sworn, doth depose and say and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James C. Davis

That the said James C. Davis in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 12th day of March 1894.

And the deponent further saith, that the said
 James C. Davis

The testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing as subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this further deponent saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said James C. Davis was of sound mind and memory, free of age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

I, John H. Fodrie of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First My executors hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into their hands belonging to myself.
 Second I give and devise to my beloved wife
