

be the last Will and Testament of Mary Roberson that the said Mary Roberson in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 11th day of March 1901.

And the Deponent further saith, That the said Mary Roberson the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his and her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix.

And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his and her name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mary Roberson was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.
