A paper writing purporting to be his last Will and Testament of Albion S. Pigott, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by citation M. Pigott, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Albion S. Pigott, by the oath and examination of M. F. Willis and R. K. Hancock, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Albion S. Pigott; that the said Albion S. Pigott, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 24th day of July, 1913.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Albion S. Pigott, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Albion S. Pigott was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to his knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent doth say not.
