

credits, for his use during her natural life.

I do hereby constitute and appoint my true friends, John J. Lupton and John L. Goodwin, joint executors to this my last will and testament. This the seventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Jackson H. Goodwin }
John D. Daniels }

Wilson Lupton ^{his} mark

Carters County, Court of Probate. Aug. 26, 1878.
The execution of the foregoing will is proved, before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of Jackson H. Goodwin and John D. Daniels, the subscribing witnesses thereto; who swear that they saw Wilson Lupton execute the same as his last will and testament; that they attested it in his presence and at his request; and that, at the time of its execution, he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.
(The Book of Orders and Decrees, page 54.)

John J. Lupton and John L. Goodwin qualify as executors.
Jas. Rumley, Judge of Probate.

State of North Carolina. Carters County.

I, Riley Lewis, of the County aforesaid, in view of the uncertainty of life, and being of sound mind and memory, make this my last will and testament.

My will and desire is that my executor, herein after named, proceed, as soon after my decease as practicable to sell, according to law, all my property and estate, real and personal, and after payment of my burial expenses and all my debts, out of the proceeds thereof, pay any residue that may remain, to my children, in equal shares. And I hereby empower my said executor to sell all the property and estate, real and personal, without any order of Court for that purpose.

I hereby appoint James C. Davis executor of this my last will and testament.

To my son William R. Lewis I give the bed which he now has. Given under my hand and seal the 1st. day of October 1878.

Witnesses,
John B. Lewis
Ann Styron
Thomas A. Lewis

Riley ^{his} Lewis
mark

Carters County. Court of Probate. Oct. 9th. 1878.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved, before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of John B. Lewis and Ann Styron, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto; who swear that they saw Riley Lewis execute the same as his last will and testament; that they attested it in his presence and at his request; and that, at the time of its execution, he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

(The Book of Orders and decrees, page 85.)

Jas. Rumley
Judge of Probate.

James C. Davis qualifies as executor.