Court Monthly Court of Probate December 27th 1866
 The execution of the foregoing and annexed of Josiah Daniels is proved before me according to by the oath and examination of Joseph Robinson Thomas C. Harris two of the subscribing witnesses who swear that they saw the said Josiah Daniels execute the as his last will and testament; that they attested it in his presence and at his request, and at the time of the same in their opinion he was of sound mind and disposing memory.

 Judge of Probate

In the name of God, Amen.
 I Sidney A. Payler being of sound mind and disposing will and memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, to wit:

I devise and bequeath all my estate real, personal and mixed, after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses unto my children, Jennie B. King, wife of John F. King, Samuel H.
 Payler, Edward M. Payler, Sidney A. Payler and Helen M. Payler.

I appoint and constitute my son Samuel M. Payler my sole Executor of this my last will and testament, and I authorize and empower him to sell for Cash or on credit, and at either private or public sale any and all of my estate, real, personal or mixed to pay debts, expenses of burial and charges of administration, and for division equally among my children as hereinbefore after retaining a commission of five per Centum on receipt and disbursements of my estate, for his own time and labor.

In solemn testimony of this my last will and testament, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal at Beaufort North Carolina, this the second day of August, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and eighty three.

Signed, sealed, published

R. W. Chadwick

Judge of Probate

State of North Carolina
 Carter County

I, Jonathan Stanton, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:—

That my administrator shall provide for my body a decent burial, and pay all funeral expenses, together with my just debts out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate.

I give and devise to my beloved wife C. Stanton, all of the land where I now live, on the West Side of the Main road, to Hog branch, together with all the improvements thereon, except my gin house, gin, gin-gearing, and all the fixtures thereunto belonging, with the Cotton Seed press, to have and to hold to me, the said C. Stanton, for and during the term of my natural life, in satisfaction of and in lieu of her dower and thirds of and in all my real estate.

I give and devise to my eldest son William Pearson Stanton, a tract of land in Dove Creek Swamp, beginning at the South gate running West with the ditch to the Canal, which is a dividing line between me & Benjamin Small, thence with said Canal to the head of the same, thence the same course with a ditch to another ditch along the fence, thence with said ditch West to the West Canal, thence along said Canal Northwesterly to the corner of the Fuller pattern, East along said Fuller
