I, Abram Pigott of the state and County aforesaid, being weak and infirm in body, but of sound and disposing mind & memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit, First, my will and desire is that all my just debts and funeral expences be paid, and that afterwards all such estate as I may possess, both real and personal, be disposed of as follows.

To my beloved wife, Eliza Pigott I give and bequeath during her natural life, all the estate both real and personal, and of every kind and description, and all debts due me, to be used by her for the support of herself and her children.

My will and desire is that at the death of my wife Eliza, all the property that may remain, both real and personal, be equally divided among all my children and if any of my children should die before my said wife, leaving children lawfully begotten of their body or bodies, that said children have the portions that would have fallen to their parents had they been willing.

I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my friend David W. Whitcomb and my brother Joseph Pigott, executors to this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of August A.D. 1849.
Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Abram Pigott as his last will & testament in presence of Samuel Leffers
