

Joseph Lewis, to be his last will and testament the presence of us, who, at his request and in presence, do subscribe our names as witness thereto.

A. H. Chadwick
James Chadwick

Carters County, Court of Probate. May 30, 1874.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of A. H. Chadwick, the subscriber, and James Chadwick, the subscribing witness, who swear that Joseph Lewis, the testator, acknowledged to them that he executed the same as his last will and testament; that they attested it in his presence and at his request; and that, at the time of said acknowledgment, he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.

Jas. Rumley, Judge of Probate

I, Wallace Dickinson of the County of Carteret and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, I give and devise to John Wade, the colt called Silly and one cow and calf, and increase.
Item, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife all the house hold and Kitchen furniture, and all the farming implements all the horses, cows and all manner of live stock not otherwise disposed of. My will all the crop of every description that may be upon the plantation whereon I now live and all the provision on hand at the time of my death, during her life in aid of herself. At the death of my wife all there is remaining that has not been disposed of by herself I appoint equally divided among the following S. B. Small, W. A. Dickinson, Joseph D. Dickinson, Thos. W. Dickinson.

In witness whereof, I, the said Wallace Dickinson do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 8th day of May A. D. 1874.

Wallace & Dickinson Seal

^{mark} Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Wallace Dickinson, to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at his request, and in his presence, do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

E. S. Todrey

William B. Sabiston.

Carteret County, Court of Probate. May 30, 1874.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved, before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of E. S.
Todrey and William B. Sabiston, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who swear that they saw the said Wallace Dickinson execute the same as his last will and testament; that they attested it in his presence and at his request; and that, at the time of its execution, he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.
