

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Sally Roberson, to be her last will and testament, in presence of us, who, at her request and in her presence subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Belcher Fuller

Lewis S. Tolaw

Carters County, Court of Probate, Dec. 11, 1878.

The execution of the foregoing will is proved, before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of Lewis S. Tolaw, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, John P. Davis and William F. Howland. The said Lewis S. Tolaw swears that he saw the said Sally Roberson execute the said paper writing as her last will and testament; that he attested it in her presence and at her request; and that at the time of its execution, she was, in his opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory, and further, that the name of the said Sally Roberson, subscribed as testatrix of said will, is in the hand writing of the said Sally Roberson. John P. Davis and William F. Howland swear that Belcher Fuller, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will is dead; that they are well acquainted with the hand writing of the said Belcher Fuller, having often seen him write, and that the name of the said Belcher Fuller, subscribed as a witness to said will, is in the hand writing of the said Belcher Fuller.

The Judge of Probate is fully satisfied of the genuineness and due execution of said will.

See book of Orders and Decrees, page 86.

Jas. Rumley

Judge of Probate.

I, William W. Jeffroy, of the Town of Beaufort, County of Carteret, State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, declare this my last will and testament:

I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Minerva Jeffroy, all my real and personal property of every description and kind.

My desire is, that she shall so manage the property devised and bequeathed to her as will best promote the welfare and happiness of herself and children. Any surplus funds she may have beyond her immediate family wants I would advise her to invest in United States Bonds, through the agency of Messrs. James Corner & Sons of Baltimore, if said firm should be in existence at the time of my death.

In order that my wishes may be fully carried out, and as a mark of confidence in my beloved wife Minerva, I hereby appoint her executrix to this my last will and testament. I commend her and our children to the protecting care of that being who is the friend of the widow and the fatherless.

W. W. Jeffroy (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared, this 14th day of July 1877, by William W. Jeffroy, as his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who were present at the time of signing and sealing thereof.

John Rumley
George Walker

Carters County, Court of Probate Dec. 12, 1878.
The execution of the foregoing will is proved, before me, according to law, by the oaths and examination of John Rumley and George Walker, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who swear that they saw William W. Jeffroy execute the same as his last will & testament; that they attested it in his presence, and at his request; and that at the time of its execution he was, in their opinion, of sound mind and disposing memory.
