Is all persons to whom these presents may come, know ye that I Simon Dixon of the County of Curwitt and State of North Carolina, do hereby constitute and Ordain my Brother Charles Dixon of the aforesaid State and County, my true and lawful Attorney in fact, to make do and execute, as he or he's or he's conveyance to Myself Simon Dixon require, his certain attorney, his heirs, Exors, Adms or assigns for one certain tract or parcel of Land, in the aforesaid County on Hogans Creek, being the tract whereon I lately resided, containing Six Hundred and forty acres, being the land given me by my father, also one tract of one Hundred and fifty acres, adjoining the aforesaid, which I purchased of Mr. Isaac Dalton, also one tract of twenty four acres, adjoining Daltons and being Originally a part of the same, and which I purchased of Oliver Byr, also one tract of Twenty three and an half acres adjoining the said Daltons tract which I purchased of Peter Smith Roundhill, and one other tract of Ten acres and an half, lying adjoining Charles Dixons tract which I bought of Capt. Nathaniel Dickerson, and any or all such conveyances by my said Attorney to make, I do hereby make binding on me and oblige myself hereby, fully to confirm and make binding on me, my heirs, Exors, Adms and assigns, in as full and ample a Manner, as though I myself in my own person had made and executed the said Deed or Deeds, and thereby convey all the Interest that I myself my heirs, Exors, Adms or may have therein In fee Simple, In all things whereof I have to set my hand and seal this 2nd day of November 1796
