This Indenture made this 25th day of January second year 1789 between John Douglass Esquire in behalf of the husband and their Successors of the County of Currituck of the one part and John Atkinson Esquire of the other part Witnesseth that the said John Douglass in pursuance to an order of the said County Court made the 25th day of January 1788 and according to the directions of the Act of our General Assembly in that case made and provided, sold sold free and sold unto the said John Atkinson, Tabby Duncanson an orphan son of the age of fourteen years, with the said John Atkinson to live after the manner of an apprentice and servant until he shall attain to the age of twenty years.
During all which time his said Master shall be his true Lord, his Landlord commands and where he shall stay, he shall not at any time absent himself from his said Master's service without leave, but in all things as a good and faithful servant shall be bound to his said Master. And the said John Atkinson doth covenant promise and agree to and with the said John Douglass that he will teach his said apprentice to read, write &c. Also the said John Douglass House Carpenter, And that he will
