October Court 1790.

This Indenture made the 21st day of October A.D. 1790 Between Robert Dickens Esquire in behalf of the Sutors and their Successors of the County of Caswell of the one part and Andrew Haddock of the other Part Witnesseth that the said Robert Dickens in pursuance to an Order of the said Court made the day and date above written and according to the direction of the Act of our Gen. Assembly in that case made & granted between the said Plaintiff and the said Defendant Haddock a Malatto an Orphan now of the age of three years next March with the said Andrew Haddock to live after the manner of an Apprenticed and served until the said apprentice her said estate faithfully shall obey his lawful Commands, even where Gladly Obey she shall not at any time absent herself from her said estate's service without leave but in all things as a good and faithful servant shall behave towards her said Master.
And the said Andrew Haddock doth Covenant promise and agree to and with the said Robert Dickens that he will teach and instruct and cause to be taught and instructed the said apprentice according to law to read & write the art and mystery of a spinner and that he will constantly bind and provide for the said apprentice during the Term aforesaid sufficient diet washing and lodging and apparel fitting for an Apprenticed Servant and also all other things necessary both in clothing and in Health & Medicine whereof the parties to these privates have interchangeably set their hands & seals the day and year first above written
