

Barbara A. Abernethy's Will.

145
I, Barbara A. Abernethy of County of Columbia and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and aware of the uncertainty of life, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament - That is to say:

Item 1st I will that my Executor hereinafter named provide for my body a decent burial suitable to my station in life and according to the wishes of my relatives & friends and pay all funeral expenses, and all just debts of what ever kind and to whomsoever owing out of my money that shall come into his hands as a part of my estate.

Item 2nd I devise unto Henry Abernethy, colored, twenty acres of land bounded as follows: Beginning on D. Roseman's line on the South Side of the Island Ford Road, and running east with the public Road, to a point opposite the High field, thence a Southward course in the direction of the People Spring including said spring if possible, thence a westerly course to D. Roseman's line, thence with said line to the beginning to have and to hold to the said Henry Abernethy, colored, in fee Simple Absolute and free from all charge or incumbrance.

Also I bequeath to the said Henry Abernethy, colored, one set of blacksmith tools.

Item 3rd I bequeath to R. P. Reinhardt in trust for the children of my deceased son John B. Abernethy, One thousand Eight hundred dollars, the said One thousand Eight hundred to be charged on all my real estate except the devise in item 2 above. And I direct the said R. P. Reinhardt to take charge of the said legacy to the said children of my deceased son above said, carefully manage the same and pay over to each child aforesaid his or her share of said legacy, as such child shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, the issue of such child as may die before reaching their age shall stand in his or her parent's place; And I desire said legacy to bear interest from the date of my death, and of in the judgment ment of the aforesaid trustee any legatee aforesaid need money for education or any other purpose, then the said trustee may pay to such legatee the interest on his or her share of the legacy aforesaid as it shall fall due but the principal must be kept in tact until the eldest child arrive at said age of twenty-one years - when he or she shall receive his or her share, and in a like manner shall the other legatees aforesaid receive their legacy.

Item 4th I devise and bequeath unto my daughter Susan A. Wilfong all my property - both real and personal, except the devise and bequest in item 2 and the bequest in item 3 above but I charge all the real estate she shall receive with the payment of the bequest in item 3 above.

Lastly, I declare all wills heretofore made by me null and void, and I appoint my friend and kinsman W. P. Reinhardt my sole executor and cloth him with full power to properly settle up my estate and carry out the provisions of this my last will and testament.
