

her death lands to descend to and be the property of the heirs of her body.

(Sixth). It is further my will that during the lifetime of my wife Rhoda it is my desire that any of my children may take from my lands any timber they may need for fire wood for their comfort, but that no timber shall be cut and sold or removed from said land for pecuniary benefit.

(Seventh). It is further my will that my Executor pay from any money he may have in hand from my estate, Yodens Warden the sum of one dollar, when the distribution of my estate occurs.

(Eighth). I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Adolphus D. Herman my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I the said Elijah Herman do hereunto set my hand and seal this third day of September 1898.

Elijah Herman. Seal

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said Elijah Herman to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

J. G. Shell
John L. Yount
Jonas Hunsucker.

Will of C. H. Murray

Hickory, N.C. Sept. 10th 1901

I, C. H. Murray, of the County of Catawba and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, and considering my earthly existence, do make this my last will and Testament in manner and form as follows, to-wit:

I will, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife, Rosalie Murray, her heirs and assigns, all my personal property and real estate, situated in the City of Hickory, adjoining the lots of A. C. Link, McCoy Moritz, and others, to have and to hold forever.

Lastly, I appoint C. S. Little of Catawba County and State of North Carolina, my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes, to carry out, this, my last will and Testament.

In the presence of God I and these subscribing witnesses, I hereunto affix my hand and seal, this Sept. 10, 1901
C. H. Murray (Seal)

Witnesses
J. D. Shuford.
J. D. Shick.