

The Will of Gen Wilkison Continued been paid off, while under control of my executor. I will my place in Mountain Creek township in which my father now resides or lives, to my father during his life time and then to his present wife if living at his death during her life time or widowhood and then to my children. I will that none of my lands be sold until my youngest child is twenty one years old and then it may be sold or divided as the majority of my children may desire. If sold, it shall be sold privately by my children and the proceeds divided equally among themselves, provided they shall provide a comfortable living out of the same for their mother if then living and has never married after my death so long as she lives and remains my widow thereafter. My family shall have the right and privilege to sell any piece or pieces of personal property on hand at my death that they think proper to discharge any of my lawful debts. I appoint my brother R. H. Wilkison executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In case other crops than grain and cotton be grown on my home farm the third of all such crops except potatoe patches and garden patches shall go to the discharge of my debts and the after being sold privately.

Note - Sarah Sump
 was the second wife of Elias Sump - the first having been
 Elizabeth Smith

First: I direct my executor to pay all my just debts including burial expenses and "Tomb Stone" suitable to my station in life.
 Secondly - I devise to my beloved wife Sarah Sump all my real estate during her natural life, and at her death to go to Laura Sife and Ada Propst children bound to me provided they pay one hundred dollars each to my son Marcus Sump's living heirs, but should the children of my said son Marcus not be living at that time, then they are to pay the said amount to my executor for my estate.

Thirdly, I also bequeath to my wife Sarah all my household & kitchen furniture, all my live stock of every kind, and all farming implements to have and to hold during her natural life and at her death to be sold by my executor.

Fourthly, I direct that my executor shall keep all my money, chose in action and debts due me at interest during the lifetime of my said wife and I also direct that my executor pay to my said wife Sarah out of said fund the sum of fifty dollars per annum for her support as long as she may live.

Fifthly - I further direct that at the death of my said wife Sarah, my executor pay over all the remainder of my estate then in his hands or that may come into his hands from sale of personal property to all my heirs at law according to their several interests, except my son Logan Sump, who has already received his part by deed of conveyance of lands.
 Sixthly - I hereby revoke and declare
