

The last will and Testament Elizabeth B. Harris

application for letters Testamentary

E. B. Harris
Deceased

Catawba County: In the Probate Court

In the matter of the will of } Before M. C. Sherrill
E. B. Harris } Judge of ProbateA. J. Seagle and
J. N. Craige
Executors.

A. J. Seagle being sworn, doth say: that E. B. Harris late of said County, is dead, having first made and published her last will and Testament; and that he A. J. Seagle & J. N. Craige is the executors named therein. Further, that the property of the said E. B. Harris consisting of money and household furniture is worth about $250.00 so far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Robt. W. Harris Bessie Craige Carrie Seagle Edwin Seagle Mary Maud Craige Lydia Craige and Mrs Harriet Seagle are the parties entitled under said will to said property.

A. J. Seagle

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 22 day of Nov 1872
M. C. Sherrill
Probate Judge.

State of North Carolina }
Cabarrus County }

I Elizabeth B. Harris being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament, I commend my soul to God and my body to a christian burial.

It is my will that my interest in the lands that I inherit from my father Paul Barringer dec^d now held by my Brother Paul B. Barringer in the state of Mississippi be equally divided between Harriet Seagle wife of A. J. Seagle and Lydia Craige wife of J. N. Craige and should either or both of said Harriet Seagle or Lydia Craige die before receiving said interest in said lands then their children shall receive their Mothers share or shares

It is my will that the following articles be disposed of thus

That Robert W. Harris have one set of silver forks, large soup spoon one old dessert spoon, two old tea spoons with his grand mother name on, one laid quilt with birds on it; made by his grand-mother Harris.

That Bessie Craige have my gold watch and Mosaic breast-pin and a home-made colored countenance made by her great, great-grand mother.

That Carrie Seagle have one silver cup and my wedding ring.

That Edwin Seagle have one red Irish chair quilt made by my self.

That Mary Maud have two silver shell perfume spoons.

That Lydia Craige have one set of china that had belonged to my mother, the Piano, one large parlor gilt frame looking glass, one set silver table spoons, one marble top wash stand, one Parlor rocking chair, one silver butter knife, one gold breast-pin with hair in it.

That Harriet Seagle have my parlor table my finest bureau, two mahogany wash-stands, one parlor rocking chair, one set of silver teaspoons numbering ten, one hair bracelet.

That all the remainder of my house furniture be equally divided between Harriet Seagle and Lydia Craige and that all the residue of my property not mentioned above be equally divided between Harriet Seagle and Lydia Craige. That J. N. Craige and A. J. Seagle be executors of this my last will and Testament.

Wm. H. Robinson ft
M. W. Johnston ft.

E. B. Harris

The said will is admitted to Probate. The writing purporting to be a codicil to said will having but one subscribing witness is not admitted to Probate.

State of North Carolina } In the Probate Court
Catawba County }

The foregoing paper writing purporting to be the last will & Testament of Mrs E. B. Harris was duly proved before John A. McDowell, Probate Judge of Cabarrus Co by oath and examination of Wm. H. Robinson & W. Johnston subscribing witnesses. The affidavit of said witnesses with the certificate under seal of office of said Probate Judge filed in this office

Nov. 22 / 1872