

State of North Carolina } In the Superior Court
Catawba County, }

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Fanny Robinson, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned P. H. Hoyle, Clerk of the Superior Court in and for said County, by the executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Fanny Robinson is proven by the oath and examination of Wm Burns and W. C. Hilderbrand, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Fanny Robinson. That the said Testator in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date on the 13 day of July, 1856, (or, did in the presence of this deponent acknowledge the signing the said paper writing.)

And the deponent further saith, that the said Fanny Robinson the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, and in the presence of the said Testatrix ~~and this~~ deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said Testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Testatrix was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not

Wm Burns (decal)
W. C. Hilderbrand (decal)

State of North Carolina
Catawba County

In the name of God Amen

I Absalom Weaver of said County, and State being in a sound mind, memory, but feeling the uncertainty of my earthly life, hence do proclaim and declare the following my last will and Testament in the following form to wit.

I Give and bequeath unto Daniel Ligon and his wife Jane one half of my plantation or half of all my lands joining S. R. Beck's place House and others to have & hold the same with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging after my and wife's Catharine's death. Then he shall have full possession of the same, for the following services to be rendered that he shall take care of us during our natural lives and treat us well, and support us out of the said lands and other estate as the nature of the case will require.

And at our deaths to see that we are decently buried in the Church yard at Zion Church. And then that portion of the land that embraces House and out building shall fall to the said Daniel Ligon and his wife Jane, and the other half shall then be sold to the highest bidder at public sale and proceeds so arising shall be distributed among my heirs according to their grade. And also my personal effects shall also be sold and divided among them also. And lastly I appoint my friend S. M. Yoder my executor to this my last will and testament to carry it out to its true meaning and content. And at our death shall pay all our debts that may be remaining unpaid together with all our burial expenses. In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal February 20th, 1856, Signed in the presence of
F. R. Keet
Or. S. Blackburn

Absalom Weaver
mark

Sworn and subscribed
this 13 day of Feb. 1857

P. H. Hoyle, Clerk

Absalom Weaver
Will

160

Fanny Robinson's Will