A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Harriet C. Killian, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of Court for said County, by Sydney A. Turbifill, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Harriet C. Killian, proven by the oath and examination of J. H. Killian & L. A. Crowell the subscribers thereto, who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, and purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Harriet C. Killian; that the said Harriet C. Killian, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears the date of the 28th day of April, 1896.

And the Deponent further saith, That the said Harriet C. Killian, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her Last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said Last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing her name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Harriet C. Killian was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.
