LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MARTHA ANN WINEBARGER.

Catawba County, - Nort Carolina. - This November, 13th, 1905.

KNOW ALL MEN THAT IT MAY CONCERN, That I do this day make my last Will. And it is as follows, to-wit: It is my Will that Mary Bolick, my daughter, may receive Fifty Dollars, as her full part of my estate, and after my debts are all settled and burial expenses paid, it is my Will and desire in good faith, that if L. A. Lanier will take care of me and supports me as a moral principle and duty requires, it is my testimony and last Will and wish for the said L. A. Lanier, heirs and assigns to have all my lands and property at my decease, except the Fifty Dollars, that I willed to my daughter Mary Bolick, if the said L. A. Lanier sees fit to pay over this $50.00 to Mary Bolick and he continues to support me my life-time he shall be entitled to all that remains of my estate.

The above being my own last Will I sign it this day in good faith in the presence of these witnesses who can testify to the same.
