Last Will & Testament of Henry Hawn.

North Carolina (Catawba County) I Henry Hawn of Hickory in the County and State aforesaid do make and constitute this my last Will & Testament, revoking and setting aside all previous wills. I give and bequeath to my son David T. Hawn the sum of two hundred dollars and one half of the loose bedding. These bequests to be paid to my said son at and after the death of my wife Catharine Hawn, unless she may choose to pay them sooner. I give and bequeath to my said beloved wife Anna T. Hawn the use and benefit of all my property of every description Real and personal during her lifetime and I hereby authorize and empower my Executors herein named to sell and convey any of the property of which I may be possessed at my death under her my said wife's direction, and convey the same to the purchaser.

After the death of my wife I will that my remaining property after paying the above bequests be equally divided, with David T. Hawn (Caroline) Whitener and the heirs of my deceased daughter Catharine Voder, that is that the estate be divided into three equal parts, that David T. have one share, Caroline, one share, and the Children of Catharine one amongst them.

It is my wish and desire that my wife have a good and comfortable living out of the estate during her life time, and I so will and direct. I hereby constitute and appoint Pink Whitener and David E. Whitener Executors of this my will. I also will and direct that my Executors above named have prepared and erected at my own grave, and also that of my wife after our death suitable Tomb Stones which shall be paid for together with our funeral expenses before the division of the estate as directed before is made Witness my hand and seal this 30th day of July 1885.

Henry Hawn (Seal)
Signed, sealed, delivered by the testator to his will and witnesses in his presence and in presence of each other the day above written.

Filed for probate Dec. 15th 1890.

State of North Carolina, } In the Superior Court.
Catawba County, }

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Hawn deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, J. P. Herman, Clerk of the Superior Court in and for said County, by D. E. Whitener, the executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Henry Hawn by the oath and examination of H. C. Hamilton and W. M. Seagle, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both of them say, "Each for himself that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Hawn, that the said Henry Hawn in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date on the 30th day of July 1885.

And the deponents further say, that the said Henry Hawn, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, and in the presence of the said testator. And these deponents further say, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing their names as attesting witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said Henry Hawn was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, implication or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed, this 8th day of January before me,

In the matter of probating the will

Henry Hawn, deceased
This cause coming on to be heard and being heard, and it appearing to the Court that a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry Hawn, deceased, was duly filed before me, J. P. Herman, Clerk Superior Court, and application made by D. E. Whitener one of the executors named therein to prove said will in solemn form, and citation having been duly issued to see the heirs at law, to wit: Anne S. Hawn, D. S. Hawn, M. E. Husbunhut and Caroline his wife, Trenton Probst and Julia C. his wife, Luther Yoder, Junius P. Yoder, D. H. Yoder, M. E. Yoder by her guardian Andy Yoder, and John Yoder, to appear at the Clerk's office on the 8th day of Jan 1891, see the proceedings and file objections if any they have to the proving of said will in solemn form.
And it further appearing to the Court that none of the above named heirs are present either in person or by attorney, save Andy Yoder, guardian and no objections having been made, Now therefore upon the examination under oath of H. C. Hamilton and W. M. Seagle, the subscribing witnesses to said will, I do hereby declare the said will of said Henry Hawn, deceased, duly proved, in solemn form, this January 8th 1891.
