Will of J. F. Miller.

North Carolina
County of Catawba

In the name of God, amen:

J. F. Miller, of the County of Catawba and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of life, do publish this my last will and testament in the manner following:

I. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary E. Miller the house in which we now live with all surrounding buildings to the same, together with 16 acres of land, the said 16 acres being that portion of my estate reserved to the old Homestead after portion to my children & upon which the residence & buildings referred to are situated to have & to hold the same in fee simple, absolutely & unconditionally, to dispose of or sell as she may deem proper. I also will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary E. Miller all my personal property of every kind absolutely and unconditionally to enjoy and use in any manner she may see proper - consisting of all household & kitchen furniture, blacksmith tools, one two horse waggon 1 cow, one sorrel mare and all debts and accounts due me.

It is my further will and request that my wife pay whatever debts I may be lawfully due & to place my body at its last resting place in a decent and Christian manner.

II. I will and bequeath to my son Robert P. Miller, as an exception to the provisions of personal property before mentioned, one dark colored mule colt 1 year old, & the increase of the sorrel mare above mentioned, and one one-horse waggon.

III. I will and bequeath lastly, that the rents due me from my estate heretofore made to my children, namely James, Thomas, Eugene, Robert and my daughter Mrs. N. C. Signman, or what may become due - I give to my wife Mary E. Miller - also my interest - one-half - in wheat drill.

IV. I do further appoint my beloved wife Mary E. Miller, executrix of this my last will and testament, and hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

May 4th 1899.
