A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. S. Munday deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by A. H. Sigman, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said J. S. Munday proved by the oath and examination of J. A. Sherrill and Warren Munday the subscribing witnesses thereto: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. S. Munday that the said J. S. Munday in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 11th day of April, 1893.

And the deponent further saith, that the said J. S. Munday the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. S. Munday was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was under any restraint, to the

J. S. Munday, of the State of North Carolina and County of Catawba, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my natural life do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

First that my executor hereinafter named, pay my funeral expenses, together with my just debts to whomsoever owing. Second. I will and bequeath to my beloved wife, Susan R. Munday, my home plantation together with all the household and kitchen furniture and pottery and one choice horse, and all my cattle, sheep and hogs to have and to hold during her natural life, and at the death of my beloved wife, Susan R. Munday, the above willed property, be equally divided among my children or the heirs of their body. Third, my will is that the remainder of my property be equally divided among my lawful heirs, including my daughters Elizabeth L. McCall and Rose Another Lofton, which is to have a share to their children except my daughter Julia Proctor which is to have three hundred dollars less, and my son Monroe two hundred dollars less, and my son Osburn M. Munday to have two hundred less than their equal share and that my son Osburn M. Munday's share be equally divided between himself and his son Luther Munday which is my grand son.

Lastly, I do make and declare my son in law Alexander H. Sigman my lawful executor to this my last Will and Testament. To this I set my hand and affix my seal this 11 April, 1893

 of sound mind and memory, but considering
 the uncertainty of my earthly existence,
 I make and declare this to be my last
 Will and Testament in manner and form
 as follows, viz:

Item first, I will, bequeath and devise to my beloved wife Harriett White my home farm adjoining the lands of C. S. Little, J. M.
 Smith, Sylvanus Lail, Mary Lail, J. D.
 Bradshaw, D. A. Hedrick, and others, containing about thirty one acres more or less. To have all of said ^{pleased} lands and I give her the right to will or deed it to any one whom she may please.

Item 2nd. My wife Harriett White is to pay all of my just debts out of the said property which I have been ill and have been in the hands

will or deed it to any one.
 Item 3rd I will and bequeath to my beloved wife one bay mule and three head of cattle and all of my household and kitchen furniture, and all other personal property whatsoever.

Item 4th I do hereby revoke all former wills.

Item 5th. I do hereby appoint my beloved wife Harriet White my lawful administratrix to all meaning and intents of this my last Will and Testament.

Whereof I hereunto affix my hand and seal this 12nd day of January, 1897.
