

North Carolina) In the Superior Court
Dredell County) Before J. A. Hartness Clerk

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Dr. E. O. Elliott, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by W. E. Anderson, one of the Executors therein named; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Jas. F. Anderson that W. A. Wood one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead; and it is further proved by the oath and examination of said Jas. F. Anderson that he is well acquainted with the hand writing of said W. A. Wood, having often seen him write and that the name of the said W. A. Wood subscribed as witness to the said Will is in the hand writing of the said W. A. Wood.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court, that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of the said Dr. E. O. Elliott.

In the name of God Amen,
I Marcus M. Wilson of the County of Catawba do make declare and publish to be my last will and testament to wit: I will and bequeath to my son Charles Wilson all my land not disposed of or conveyed before my death, it being on the east side of the Creek adjoining lands of Wilson Robinson and others, now Carr is to pay his proportional part of the three hundred going to A. H. Wilson H. M. Wilson and Julia Boston and is also to provide his proportionate part of the support for his mother, with his brother Logan my sons Charles and Logan are also to pay out off the lands I have given them by deed or will one hundred dollars to each of my children to wit: A. H. Wilson, H. M. Wilson & Julia Ann Boston, this payment to be made out of any property I may have as well as the land, After my Executor hereinafter named has paid all my debts and the charges of administration funeral expenses, including tomb stones for myself and wife suitable to the wishes of my family. I direct my executor to pay any surplus if there should be any to my sons A. H. Wilson and H. M. Wilson and my daughter Julia Ann Boston. My sons Logan and Carr and Charles are to have nothing more out of estate because I have already given them as much as I am able to do in land.

Lastly, hereby revoking all former wills by me made I hereby appoint my son Logan A. Wilson the executor of this my last will and testament, I witness whereof I have been in the presence of the subscribing witnesses have set my hand and seal this 10th day of May 1880
