

November Session 1867

In the name of God, I Michael Rudisille of the County of Catawba and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, but feeling the infirmities of age and knowing that I must part off this mortality and appeal before my Creator and Judge do make certain and publish this my last will and testament.

- 1st I give and bequeath my spirit unto God, etc. it shall be in humble faith on the Lord Jesus assured that he will save it in the day of Christ; and my body I recommend to a Christian burial in the earth, hoping for a glorious immortality.
- 2^d I give and bequeath unto my daughter Barbara Eliza eight hundred dollars out of my estate to make her equal with her sisters, to be paid when she shall come to her age.
- 3^d I give and devise unto my daughter Barbara Eliza, the house and lot on which she now lives and also give and bequeath unto her all my household and kitchen furniture of every description for the use of the eight hundred dollars mentioned above, and for her kindness and attention to me during all my infirmities of age.
- 4th I give her the contents of my milk house and smother house - one acre and two garden beds and my cattle and hogs on hand.
- 4th I give and bequeath unto my son Ephraim Rudisille seventy dollars, money advanced to me shortly after the late war.
- 5th I give and bequeath unto my son Newton Luther Rudisille fifty dollars as above stated.
- 6th I will and bequeath that the balance of all my estate shall be sold and the money collected on my debts and the proceeds of the sale and the money arising from the collection of the debts due me shall be equally divided between my sons Ephraim, Newton and Melancthon Rudisille and my daughter Barbara Eliza Rudisille.

I do hereby declare and publish the foregoing to be my last will and testament revoking and obviating all former wills by me heretofore made and do hereby appoint my son Melancthon Rudisille and M. J. Campbell executors of this my last will and testament.

November Session 1867

In the name of God, I Andrew M. Whitener of the County of Catawba and State of North Carolina, being called to the Consistory Court of perfect memory thanks be given to God, but knowing that all men must die, I do make, make and certain this my last will and testament, that is to say principal and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body to earth nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again, by the mighty power of God, as touching such things whereunto I hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give and devise, dispose of the same in the following manner, and form first of all I give unto my beloved wife Maria all my lands Chatahi and all that is due at this time to be hereon provided she live a single life to the end of her days but should she marry after my death she shall have no child's part of the property only she may have the privilege to sell my plantation lying in South County the same containing 170 acres at any time she sees proper to do so but should she live a widow to the end of her days, and die intestate all the property to be devised equally between my sons. I also appoint Eli Whitener my executor, In witness whereunto I set my hand and seal this the 9th of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven
