

WILL OF P. M. HILDEBRAND.

In the name of God: Amen.

I, P. M. Hildebrand, being of sound mind and memory, make this my last Will and Testament, revoking all other Wills.

I will my son George M. Hildebrand, all my real and personal property of whatever description, including the G. F. Smyre lands the Joseph Bost lands and W. R. Self lands and any others that I may have at my death. Said lands lie in Newton Township on the waters of Smyre's Mill creek. I will my son A. C. Hildebrand, five dollars. I will my daughter Emma, five dollars. It is my further will that my son George M., pay Ira Hildebrand, fifty dollars $50.00 if he arrives at the age of twenty-one.

I will also White's wife, Ada, and her children ten acres of land to be set apart to her from the west end of the tract she G. F. Smyre land. I will Mattie Hawn and her children, ten acres of land, including <sup>the house</sup> she now lives in on the Sandy Ford road, in case my son George M. Hildebrand, should not be living at my death, then I will that property both real and personal which he would have taken under this Will should go to the children of Ada White and Mattie Hawn, share and share alike. It is my further wish that my son George M. Hildebrand, erect a suitable memorial over my grave.

Witness my hand and seal, this 1st, 1905.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MARY P. CALDWELL.

State of North Carolina, - Catawba County.

I, Mary P. Caldwell of Mt. Creek Township, Catawba County, N. C., being of sound mind, memory and understanding, but being in failing health and realizing the uncertainty of this earthly existence do make this my Last Will and Testament, in manner and form, as follows: -

I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter Cora Caldwell and my son Walter Caldwell, their heirs and assigns, in common, all of my property both real and personal of which I may be possessed at time of my death, including all moneys, notes, stocks, bonds, and all other properties of which I may be possessed, after paying all of my funeral expenses, and all just debts for which I may be liable at time of my death, to have and to hold forever, provided; that if the real estate or home place shall be sold by the said Cora and Walter Caldwell, during the lifetime of my daughter Carrie Whiting, then and in that case the said Cora and Walter shall pay to the said Carrie Whiting, the sum of Fifty Dollars, each, from the moneys derived from such sale, in case of the death of the said Carrie Whiting before such sale, then the above specified amounts to be paid to her daughter Rose, her heirs or assigns forever.

And I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint C. H. Lester, sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking, and making void all and every other will or Wills heretofore made by me. And do declare this to be my Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said Mary P. Caldwell, have hereunto affixed my hand and seal, this 6th day of November, 1905.

Mary P. Caldwell, (SEAL)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Mary P. Caldwell to be her last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
