

WILL OF SALLIE FOX.

North Carolina, - - Catawba County.

I, Sallie Fox of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last Will and Testament:

1. My Executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to my friends and pay my just debts and funeral expenses out of the first money coming into his hands.

2. I give and bequeath to Titus S. Hefner, three beds, and furniture, all the house-hold and kitchen furniture, all my chickens and also my rents raised on the land.

3. I bequeath to Titus S. Hefner, my part of the building on the said land.

4. I bequeath and will to T. S. Hefner, and his heirs all my money and notes amounting to $44.58 forty four dollars and fifty-eight cents.

5. I will and bequeath to T. S. Hefner all my other loose property not named in this Will.

6. I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend Titus S. Hefner my lawful Executor to all my intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and declaring all other wills void by me heretofore made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the said Sallie Fox do herunto set my hand and seal.

This 15th Sept., 1905.

WILL OF JOHN A. WHITENER.

State of North Carolina, - - Catawba County.

I, John A. Whitener, of the County of Catawba, in the State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make this and declare it to be my last will and Testament:

First: - My Executor, hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial, and pay all funeral expenses out of my personal effects.

Second: - I give and bequeath my watch to my grand-son George Deitz.

Third: - I give and bequeath to my grand-son, Clyde Deitz, all my Blacksmith and Mechanics tools.

Fourth: - I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Whitener, all of my real estate to have control of with all rents or profits accruing from the same, for her personal use during her natural life, then the same I give equally to my two daughters, Fannie Morris and Emma Deitz, to have and to hold until the youngest lawful heir of either of them shall have become twenty-one years of age, then all my real estate I give to my living grand-children equally. But if my wife Mary Whitener should live until the youngest grand-child is twenty-one years old then at her death said real estate is to go directly to the grand-children as above directed.

Fifth: - I hereby direct that my Executor hereinafter named shall, after my death, sell all my personal property, not heretofore disposed of, either at public sale or privately, as he may deem best, and divide the proceeds of the same equally between my wife and two daughters heretofore named and all my living grand children.

Sixth: - I hereby constitute and appoint my son-in-law, Henry Deitz my lawful executor to execute this my last Will and Testament, according to the true intent and purpose of the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, John A. Whitener, do hereto set my hand and seal, this the 19th day of Jan. 1906.

J. A. Whitener, (Seal)
