Last Will and Testament of Wilson Cranford
Mountain Creek, N.C.

June 25 1889.

I want all of my debts paid and I want a nice set of Tombstones for my self and a set for Anna, and want my wife to have the home for life time, and I want Henry to settle up the Estate.

J. R. Haldeman, Witness
W. R. Howard

In the Superior Court
Aug. 30. 1889.

The foregoing attached paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Wilson Cranford, uttered and expressed by him, while on his death-bed, in his own home is proven by the oath and examination of J. R. Haldeman and W. R. Howard, who make oath and say and each for himself says that he was at the residence of the said Wilson Cranford, while he was in his last sickness, and that he, in the presence of each of us, expressed orally in substance and as nearly in words as we can call to mind, the same as the foregoing said paper writing. That at the time of so expressing and uttering his will and wish, he was of sound mind and memory and of full age to make a will and was under no restraint to the knowledge, information and belief and further these deponents say not.
