

State of North Carolina, ss In the Superior Court,

Catawba County

A Paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Perceda Green, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J.B. Barringer who took the said will in his case, no executor being named in said will, and the due execution thereof by the said Perceda Green, proved by the oath and examination of J.B. Barringer and J.A. Capps the subscribing witnesses thereto; who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Perceda Green that the said Perceda Green in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 9th day of Dec. 1897.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Perceda Green the testatrix aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid declare said paper-writing to be subscribed by her, and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Perceda Green was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

J.B. Barringer
J.A. Capps

Severally sworn and subscribed
this 10th day of December 1900 before me.

L. H. Phillips, Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina, ss In the Superior Court,
Catawba County,

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper-writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Perceda Green, deceased. Let the said Will together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

I want my wife to have all my property and have her home on the place as long as she lives.

I want all my debts paid. At my wife's death, I want the property divided equally among my children.

Probate of Nuncupative Will.

North Carolina, ss In the Superior Court,
Catawba County,

A paper-writing, purporting to contain the nuncupative Will of William Pinkney Manney, deceased, and which is in words and figures following, to wit: -

"State of North Carolina

Catawba County

I want my wife to have all my property and have her home on the place as long as she lives.

I want all my debts paid. At my wife's death, I want the property divided equally among my children."

is exhibited for probate in open Court by Garland E Manney. The being no executor named in said will, the said Garland E Manney is hereby appointed Executor of the said Will. And it is thereupon proved by the evidence of J. A. Witherspoon, J. Mack Ballard and Geo. H. Rabb three competent and credible witnesses, that the said William Pinkney Manney, in his last illness, in his own dwelling house, and when he was of sound mind and disposing memory, and in their presence, did make a nuncupative Will, and did in said Will bequeath his personal estate to the persons and in the manner mentioned in said writing and that said witnesses were specially required by the said William Pinkney Manney to bear witness thereto. And it is also proved by the said witnesses that the said William Pinkney Manney died on the 5th day of October 1900, and that the said nuncupative Will was reduced into writing as aforesaid on or about the 10th day of November 1900. And it further appears from the return of the notice that Candace E Manney, Garland E Manney, Vortie Manney, E. L. Manney, Perkins Manney, Marvin Manney, Mary Manney, Samuel Manney, and Emeline Manney, the next of kin of the said William Pinkney Manney have accepted service, telling us them to appear and contest said will if they think proper.

(See next page for order)

It is therefore adjudged that the said paper-writing doth contain the nuncupative will and testament of the said William Pinkney Murrey, as to his personal estate, and the same is to be recorded and filed.

Will of S. P. Drumm

State of North Carolina
Catawba County

In the name of God Amen.

I, S. Peter Drumm of the County and State above said being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof to the end that I may be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please my God to call me hence having now determined to direct what disposition shall be made of my property after my decease and after maturity, considering the circumstances and condition of all those among whom as my heirs at law on the object of my gratitude or affection in my judgment my estate should be distributed. I do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking and making null and void all former wills and testaments and writings in the nature of last wills and testaments by me heretofore made. And my will is, First that after my decease my body shall be decently buried without ostentation or unnecessary expence and that my funeral charges and just debts shall be paid by my executor hereinafter named and as to the residue of my estate and property with which God has blessed me and shall not be required for the payment of debts funeral charges and the expences in and about the execution of this my will and the administration of my estate. Item first, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife all my lands on the South side of the Sulphur Spring road leading from Catawba Station to said Springs adjoining the lands of J. F. Hotten P. K. Little and others as long as she may live and after her death then to my son Marcus L. Drumm. Item second, I will and bequeath to my beloved wife all my personal property of all description during her life and after her death then it shall go and belong to said Marcus L. Drumm Item 3rd And it is my will that out of my estate my beloved wife shall be buried with decency and respectability and the expenses of the same shall be paid out of my estate Item 4th I do nominate and appoint my true and trusty son Marcus L. Drumm lawful Executor to execute this my last will and testament to the full intent and meaning thereof

In testimony whereof I the said S. P. Drumm have hereunto set my hand and seal

This the 20th day of August 1897.

S. P. Drumm.

Signed sealed published and declared by the said S. P. Drumm to be his last will and testament and in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence subscribe our names as witnesses
