should be alive and appear personally, then he shall have an equal share with my three sons before mentioned Elizabeth Comford Elizabeth Lunsford

In the name of God amen I Nicholas Pinner of Chatham County and State of North Carolina. Now being very sick but of perfect mind and memory. Thanks be given unto God, calling the mortality of my body into mine and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament and revoking all others before made. That is to say first I give and bequeath unto my wife and my Sold into the hands of Abingthor Sea that gave it my way I commend to the earth to be buried in a Christian burial nothing doubting but that the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the power of God; And as touching my worldly estate God has pleased to bless me with in this life, I give and dispose of the same in the following manner First of all I will and desire that all my Just debts paid. Secondly I will that my Son Oliver keep what he has had from my estate as his full share — Thirdly I will that my Son William keep what he has already had of my estate as full share. — Fourthly I give to my beloved Wife Mary during her life or widowhood, the following property (to wit) — The Land which I now live on, the following Negroes Amos, Adam, Carter, Mary, Liza, Ben, little John, big John and Anthony, also all the Household Goods of every sort; also all the Stock of every kind, except Two Horses, that is the Horse that Eamon rides and the Colt which was got by Sep. Ballant, which I give to Eamon. The property which I have lent my Wife I will that she keep her life time or widowhood The Land at her death or marriage which I have lent her. I will to Eamon; The rest of my property which I have lent my Wife at her death or marriage I will that it be divided between daughters Polly and Elizabeth

Fifthly I give to my son Eamon the following property The Negroes Stephen, Hagar & Glabonne. And Horse the one the new rider and the Colt got by Sep. Ballant, also at his Mother's death or marriage to whole of the Land which I now lend to my Wife lastly I give to my Daughters Elizabeth and Polly all the property I now lend to my Wife (except the Land which I have given to Eamon at his Mother's death or marriage) which I want equally divided between the two. The debts which I have mentioned coming against my Estate I will pay out of my Crop of Tobacco which I now have on hand, and the crop of Tobacco which I about to make, and Robinson's Note. And if there should be any balance I wish it to be divided between my Wife my son Eamon and my Daughters Polly and Elizabeth, as soon as the debt is paid — lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my son William & Eamon as Executors to this my last Will and Testament, which I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13th March 1812.
