A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. M. Carrington deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by J. B. Carrington the Executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said A. M. Carrington is proven by the oath and examination of J. W. Davidson & E. C. Matlock, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, do depose and say, and each for himself do - swear and affirm, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of A. M. Carrington, that the said A. M. Carrington in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17th day of Oct 1929. And this deponent further saith, that the said A. M. Carrington the testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request, and in the presence of said Testator, and this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said Testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said A. M. Carrington was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not,

North Carolina } Last Will and Testament.
 Cherokee County } of.
 A. M. Carringer.

In the name of God, Amen!

I, A. M. Carringer being of sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of human life, do now make and publish this my last will and Testament, that is to say, I give my Soul to the God who gave it, and all my property both real and personal I give and bequeath to my son, John B. Carringer.

I appoint my father, J. B. Carringer to be sole Executor of this my will. In the event of his death before my son John B. Carringer reaches his majority, I then appoint my Brother-in-law, Neil Sued, to be sole Executor of this my will.

A. M. Carringer (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by the said A. M. Carringer the testator as and for his last will and Testament: and we, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto, this 17th day of October 1929.
