Cherokee County.

I, Boose C. McKinney, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

I give and devise to my beloved wife Ada McKinney, all my property, both real and personal, the personal to do with as she sees fit, but the real property to be for her natural life, and at her death to go to Enoch Penland and his wife Ada Penland.

In the event that my beloved wife shall die before me then all the said property of which I may be possessed at that time shall go to said Enoch Penland and his wife Ada Penland in fee simple.

The above devise to said Enoch Penland and his wife Ada Penland is contingent, however, upon the fact that said devisee shall take care of me and my wife as long as we both live, provide us with the necessary comforts of life and at our death to give us a decent burial at their own expense. In the event that said Enoch Penland and his wife Ada Penland fail to do this then said property shall be divided equally among my next of kin.

I hereby appoint my friend H. M. Whitaker as my executor, to see that the above provisions are carried out, he to serve without bond. My said executor is satisfied that my wishes have been carried out thru to deed said land to said legatees.

In witness whereof, I, the said Boose C. McKinney do hereunto set my hand and seal,
