

State of North Carolina }
Cherokee County.

} ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of George H. Collett, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Abel B. Conley the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said George H. Collett is proved by the oath and examination of D. L. Parrie and Mrs. D. L. Parrie, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and Testament of George H. Collett; that the said George H. Collett, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 3rd day of April, 1931.

And this deponent further saith, that the said George H. Collett the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said George H. Collett was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: and further these deponents say not.

D. L. Parrie
Mrs. D. L. Parrie

Generally sworn and subscribed,
this 22nd day of April, 1931,
before me.

J. E. Keener,
Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina }
Cherokee County

} ss. In the Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of George H. Collett, deceased. Let said will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 22nd day of April, 1931.

J. E. Keener,
Clerk Superior Court.

I, George H. Collett, of the County of Cherokee, Valley township and the State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following:
First. That all of my burial expenses be paid and that all other debts that I might owe be paid in full.

Second; I give devise and bequeath unto my brother, L. W. Collett all my property, real, personal and mixed of what nature and kind soever and wheresoever. The same shall be at the time of my death.

Third. That I hereby appoint Jeb B. Conley as the Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I, George H. Collett, the testator, have to this, my last will and testament, set my hand and my seal, this the third day of April A.D. 1931.

Geo. Collett seal

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named George H. Collett as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who have herunto subscribed our names at his request, as witnesses thereto, in presence of the said testator and of each other.

D. L. Parrish, seal
Andrews, N.C.

Mrs. D. L. Parrish, seal
Andrews, N.C.

Filed and Recorded this the 22nd day of April 1931.
May L. Keener
Deputy C. L. C.

North Carolina.
Mecklenburg County.

I, James T. Maden, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but mindful of the uncertainty of life, do make and declare this my last will and testament:-

Item One: I will and direct that my Executors herein-after named, out of the first money coming into their hands, shall pay all of my just debts, including funeral expenses. I especially direct that my Executors shall pay my indebtedness as promptly as it is practicable for them to do so.

Item Two: I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Rebecca F. Maden, all of my household and kitchen furniture, and personal effects of every kind and description, with the exception of my repeater watch, which I direct that she shall keep in trust and give to our first born male child, when such child shall be at the age of discretion, and when in my wife's judgment such child could properly appreciate and take care of the watch.

Item Three: I will, devise and bequeath unto my Executors hereinafter named, in trust, and for the uses and purposes hereinafter declared, all of my property, both real and personal of every kind and description, except only that which I have willed to my wife in Item Two above.

Item Four: I will and direct that my said Executors shall hold all of my property, both real and personal except only that which I have willed to my wife in Item Two above, in trust, for the use and benefit of my beloved wife, for and during the term of her natural life, or during her widowhood; and that they shall pay to my wife all the income arising from said property, except only such as may be required for costs in administration of this trust and taxes on said property.