SS. In the Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Ben Dockery, deceased.

Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 7th day of October, 1933.

J. E. Keener,
Clerk Superior Court.

Georgia Union County.

I, J. L. Owenby, residing at Isabella, Polk County, State of Tennessee, and being now temporarily at Blairsville, Union County, Georgia, and being of advanced age, but of sound mind and disposing memory and desiring to give legal expression to the disposition of all of my property of every kind I own at the time of my death, make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills and declare this paper to be my last will and testament.

Item 1. I will my immortal soul to God as I trust for rest and peace after death, having full faith and belief in his promises, and direct my executrix, hereinafter named, as soon as convenient after death to pay all of my just debts, using for that purpose such of my estate as they see proper, not specifically disposed of by myself in this will.

Item 2. I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Ellen Butt, residing at Blairsville, Union County, Georgia and in the event of her death before mine, then to her children,
share and share alike, the following real estate, to-wit:
all of my Lewis Little place, situated and located in Cherokee County, State of North Carolina, on Nolichucky river, and lying north of the public road, as now located from Blairsville, Georgia to Culberson, North Carolina. Also whatever interest
I may own at the time of my death in lot of land number 115, in the ninth district and first section of Union County, Georgia, and known as the Edge farm.

Item 3. I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter,
Iowa Burnin, residing at Isabella, Polk County, Tennessee, and in the event of her death before mine, then to her children
share and share alike, the following real estate, to-wit:
all of the land sold and conveyed to me by Robert Bruce and his wife on the 4th day of January 1895, the same being located in Cherokee County, North Carolina, and on Nolichucky river, and fully described in the deed from Robert Bruce and wife to my self. Also all that part of my Lewis Little place which I now own and not given to my daughter Ellen. It being that part of said place on Nolich river, Cherokee County, North Carolina, lying south of the Blairsville and Bulberson public road, and north of the top of the mountain on said place. Also my house and lot on which said house is located in Isabella, Polk County, State of Tennessee, and the same in which my said daughter, Iowa and her family now reside.

Item 4. I give and bequeath to my two beloved daughters, Ellen Butt and Iowa Linn, jointly and several, to have and share and share alike, and in the event of the death of either or both of them before mine, then to their children share and share alike, that is to say the children of each to have the interest of their mother, no more and no less. All of the remainder of my property of every kind, consisting of money, debts due me, stocks and all other property of every kind no matter where located not hereinbefore given and bequeathed in this will in items two and three. And as to the division of the property given in this item of this will, I direct and request that my executors hereinafter named divide the same between themselves without the aid of any court whatever in order to save and avoid that unnecessary expense.

Item 5. Having full and unlimited confidence in my said daughters, Ellen and Iowa, I appoint them executors of this my last will and testament and relieve them of giving bond or bonds, making an inventory of the assets of my estate and from making annual returns to any and all courts in any and all of the States in which my property may be situated at the time of my death.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and seal, this the 29th day of March 1918.

(Signed) J. L. Ownby Seal.

Signed, sealed, declared and published by J. L. Ownby as his last will and testament, at Blairsville, Union County, Georgia, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said testator, after he had signed his name thereto, and at his special instance, and request and in the presence of each other,

A paper writing purporting to be a duly exemplified copy of the last Will and Testament of J. L. Ownby, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Ellen F. Butts the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said J. L. Ownby is proved by the oath and examination of Zeke Bandler and J. S. Bandler, the subscribing thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. L. Ownby; that the said J. L. Ownby, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 29th day of March, 1918,

And this deponent further saith, that the said J. L. Ownby the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said J. L. Ownby was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

Georgia, Tannin County.

To the Honorable E. W. Chapman, ordinary of said county:

The petition of Ida J. Terrell, Thompson A. Terrell, Jr., and Joseph M. Terrell, residents of Tannin County, in this State, show that Thompson A. Terrell, late of said county, died in said county, on the 25th day of October, 1931, leaving personal property therein, after having made and published his last will and testament, in which petitioners are nominated as executors thereof.

2. Petitioners herewith present said last will and testament of said deceased, and show that the following named persons are the heirs and all the heirs of said testator, to wit: Ida J.
Terrell, widow; Lillian Terrell Horton, age 23 years; Thompson A.
Terrell, Jr., age 26 years; Joseph M. Terrell, age 23 years, all of Blue Ridge, Tannin County, Georgia; Arthur B. Birtles, Jr., age 10 years; Jack Terrell Birtles, age 7 years, all of 1125 Audubon Park, Louisville, Kentucky.

3. Petitioners pray leave to prove said will in solemn form, and to that end that Ida J. Terrell, Lillian Terrell Horton, Thompson A. Terrell, Jr., Joseph M. Terrell, Arthur B. Birtles, Arthur B. Birtles, Jr., and Jack Terrell Birtles, the heirs at law of said deceased, late of said county, be cited to appear at the next court of ordinary for said county to be held on the first Monday in March, 1932, and show cause, if any they have, why said will should not be proven in solemn form, and admitted to record as the last will and testament of the said Thompson A. Terrell, deceased, and why letters testamentary should not issue to Ida J.
Terrell, Thompson A. Terrell, Jr., and ~~Thompson~~ Joseph M. Terrell the petitioners, according to the statute in such cases made and provided.
