A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. R. McLellan, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Mrs. J. R. McLellan, the Executrix therin mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said J. R. McLellan is proved by the Oath and Examination of Arthur Akin & Fred Moore, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of J. R. McLellan; that the said J. R. McLellan, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said writing, which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 28th day of Nov. 1919.

And this deponent further saith, that the said J. R. McLellan, the testator, aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and executed to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, the said J. R. McLellan was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

In the Name of God. Amen.

I, J. R. McLellan, of the State and County above named, being of full age to make and publish a Will, and being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, to-wit-

(1) I devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Lula McLellan and to such children as may be born to her and me all my property of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situate - in the event, my said wife and I have no children then and in that event, all of said property is devised to my said wife for her natural life - and if no children be born to my said wife and me, after the death of my said wife, all of my said property is devised and bequeathed to my adopted son, Horace McAllard, son of my wife Lula McAllard.

(2) I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife, Lula McAllard, the Executive of this my last Will and Testament, and direct that she be permitted to qualify and serve without any bond being required of her in any matter affecting or touching my estate.

Witness my hand and seal this the 28th day of November 1919.

J.P. McAllard, (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, Published and declared by J.P. McAllard to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names hereto as witnesses, This 28th day of November 1919
