 Cherokee County Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James E. Graham, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by W. E. Graham, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said James E. Graham is proved by the oath and examination of W. A. Evans and C. E. Walker, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James E. Graham; that the said James E. Graham, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 5th day of June, 1923.

And this deponent further saith, that the said James E. Graham, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the ^{same} time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said James E. Graham was of sound mind and memory, of free age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Solemnly sworn and subscribed,

Be it known unto ^{all men} that I Letha Anderson, understanding what I want done with my property at my death: I do now make my last will. I will after my just debts are paid all the remaining funds that I know own to Dollie Anderson and Carl Hyatt the two children we have raised

First I will it to them because it is right for them to have our property. Second I will it to them because it was S. D.
 Anderson's will for them to have the property left me by his will to me and also Dollie.

To wit The River Farm known as Jessie Raper lands The E. M. Kelpatrick land - Also the place known as the Proctor place and 20 1/2 lots in the town of Cuthbertson, N. C. including buildings and all they contain of my property at my death everything to be divided equal between Carl Hyatt and Dollie Anderson. Should Dollie die leaving no heirs Dollie's part is to go to Carl Hyatt's children being divided to suit the circumstances, letting Carl and Ella be the judge of dividing

Should Carl Hyatt die before I, Letha Anderson do his part share go to his heirs to use as they please

Carl Hyatt and Dollie Anderson is to use all my property I leave them just as they please unobstructed by any one or without any intervention of the Court whatever in any of their transactions and dividing up my Real Estate or personal property between themselves also money.
