A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Julia Marcus, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Geo. F. Hendrix the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Julia Marcus is proved by the oath and examination of Glenn Hendrix and Elsie Queen, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Julia Marcus: that the said Julia Marcus, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 17th day of September, 1927.

And This Deponent Further Saith, That the said Julia Marcus the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his and her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his and her name as attesting witnesses thereto, as aforesaid, the said Julia Marcus was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 6th day of January, 1928, before me.
