A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of M. W. Harris, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Robert L. Harris the executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said M. W. Harris is proved by the oath and examination of M. W. Bell and Ralph Moody, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of M. W. Harris; that the said M. W. Harris, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 30th day of August, 1927.

And the Deponent further saith, that the said M. W. Harris the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto.

as aforesaid, the said M. W. Harris was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

And further these deponents say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 10th day of February, 1928, before me.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of M. W. Harris, deceased,

Let said Will together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 10th day of February, 1928.

P. L. Hyatt

Clerk Superior Court.

North Carolina, Cherokee County,

I, M. W. Harris, of Cherokee County, North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, but realizing the uncertainty of human life, do make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament:

-1-

It is my will that all of my just debts and the burial expenses of myself and my wife be paid by my Executor hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate and with reasonable promptness.

-2-

It is my will that my beloved wife, Nancy Harris, if she survive me, be provided with a proper and decent support out of my estate, and that she have the use of my home as long as she may live and may elect to occupy it.

-3-

I devise to the children of my deceased daughter, Lammie, who married John Stewart and who is now dead, the sum of twenty Five Hundred Dollars in cash to be paid to them, or their legal representative by my Executor.

-4-

I devise to the children of my deceased daughter,

Dora, who married Joe Stewart and is now dead, the sum of twenty Five Hundred Dollars in cash to be paid to them, or their legal representative by my executor.

-5-

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property real, personal or mixed, and wheresoever situate, I devise to my sons, Robert L. Harris and Bowman Harris, to be equally divided between them, and to be held in fee simple; they are to see that my said wife is provided with proper support as set out in item two above.

-6-

I hereby appoint my said son, Robert L. Harris, the Executor of this my last Will and Testament; and I direct that he be permitted to qualify and serve without any bond being required of him in respect of my estate.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the 30th day of August, 1927.

M. W. Harris (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by M. W. Harris to be his Last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence and in the presence of each other do hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses, this August 30, 1927.
