

State of North Carolina } ss. In the Superior Court,
Cherokee County.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary Green Deaderick, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Anne Van Dyke Deaderick the devisee and legatee therein named, and Frank L. Mauney a subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary Green Deaderick; that the said Mary Green Deaderick, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 28th day of August, 1915.

And this deponent further saith, that the said Mary Green Deaderick the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mary Green Deaderick was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further this deponent say not.

Severally sworn and subscribed, this 27th day of December, 1930, before me.

J. E. Keener,
Clerk Superior Court

Frank L. Mauney

Before the Clerk.

In Re.

The Will of Mary Green Deaderick, Deceased.

D. Witherspoon being duly sworn says:

That he is attorney for the proponent of the will of Mary Green Deaderick, offered for probate before the clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County. That the said Mary Green Deaderick was at the time of her death a non-resident of the State of North Carolina and that the said will disposes of real estate situated in Cherokee County, North Carolina.

That the examination of one of the witnesses to said will has heretofore been offered before the clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, such witness being Frank L. Mauney, whose testimony in relation thereto has been taken by the clerk of this Court under date of December 27th, 1930, and the substance of such examination has been reduced to writing and subscribed by the said witness so offered, as is required by law.

That the other witness to said will is a Beaulaire Robinson, who is a non-resident of the State, residing in City of Orlando, County of Orange, State of Florida.

Wherefore, affiant prays the Court that a commission be issued to some notary public residing in the said County of Orange, State of Florida, to take the examination of the said A. Beaulaire Robinson, touching the execution of the said will so offered for probate.
