

North Carolina,
Cherokee County.

In the Superior Court,
Before the Clerk.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the exemplification of the record hereinafter mentioned that the last will and testament and the codicil thereto, of Matilda M. Blumenthal, deceased, a citizen of Fulton County and State of Georgia, has been duly proven and allowed in a proper Court of Probate of said County and State according to the laws of said State and it further appearing from the oath and examination of Lowndes C. Brown, Frank Lewis, Mrs. S. M. Brown, and Florence C. Williams, taken by Paul L. Lindsey, a Commissioner appointed by this Court to take the proof of the execution of said last will and testament and of the codicil thereto, which examination and proof is hereinafter fully set out, and that said last will and testament and the codicil thereto were properly and duly executed as required by the laws of this State, and it further appearing that the said Matilda M. Blumenthal, left property in the County of Cherokee and State of North Carolina, it is adjudged that the execution of said will has been duly proven.

And it is further ordered and adjudged that the exemplification of said will and of the codicil thereto and its Probate in a proper Court of Fulton County and State of Georgia, which has been produced and exhibited here duly certified and authenticated, be allowed filed and recorded in this Court.

This 3^d day of February 1920
A. L. Johnson
Clerk of Superior Court.

The State of Georgia,
Fulton County.

I, Matilda M. Blumenthal, widow of Gustave M. Blumenthal, deceased, formerly of the State of Texas, then of North Carolina and now of Fulton County, Georgia, being of sound mind and memory, and desiring to bequeath all of my estate and property after my death, do make and constitute this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all former wills made by me, especially the one of July 31st, 1878, and another of July 7th, 1882, and another of February 10th, 1891, and another of 10th December, 1897, together with any and all other wills made by me at any time: Now making, publishing, and declaring this my last will and testament, as follows, viz:-

First Item. I will and direct that my body be buried decently and properly in my vault in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Georgia, in which the body of my deceased husband, S. M. Blumenthal, now rests.

Second Item. I will and direct that such debts as I may leave unpaid, and my burial expenses, be paid.

Third Item. I will and bequeath all my wearing apparel to my sister, Mrs. Barbara Cook, if she survives me, but if she does not survive me, then in that event my wearing apparel is to go to my niece, Mrs. Mattie Peay.

Fourth Item. I will and bequeath my gold watch and chain to my great niece Matilda Peay, daughter of my niece, Mrs. Mattie Peay, and who is named for me.

Fifth Item. I will devise and bequeath to my niece, Mrs. Mattie Peay and her children, of Chester, S. C., equally share and share the storehouse and residence, and the lots or parcels of land on which they are situated in the town of Murphy, in the State of North Carolina which were bequeathed to me by the will of my husband Gustave M. Blumenthal deceased, the same to be held and managed by John Peay, son of said Mattie Peay, as trustee for the benefit of said Mattie Peay and her children, including himself, during the minority of the youngest of the children of said Mattie Peay, unless in his judgment it should be deemed best to sell said property or any part of it; and I give said John Peay, as such trustee, full power to sell and convey said property or any part of it, at public or private sale, dividing the proceeds equally between said Mattie Peay and her said children, holding and reinvesting, as such trustee, the share or shares thereof of such of said children as may then be under twenty-one years of age, for their benefit until they shall become of age.

Sixth Item. I will and bequeath to my sister Barbara Corder, the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000) to be paid her by my executor, in money or by transferring to her notes and mortgages on hand at their face value, as may be most practicable in the judgment of my executor.

Seventh Item. I will and bequeath to my brother James Ritchie, of Baldwin Mississippi, the sum of two thousand dollars ($2000) to be paid him by my executor, in money or by transferring to him notes and mortgages on hand at their face value, as may be most practicable in the judgment of my executor.

Eighth Item. I will and bequeath to my sister Margaret Ritchie, for and during her natural life, the income from one thousand dollars ($1000) said one thousand dollars to be kept loaned or invested for that purpose, by my executor the income to be paid over to my sister Margaret Ritchie, quarterly by my executor, during the life of my said sister Margaret Ritchie and after her death said one thousand dollars shall go to my nephew Robert Ritchie of Columbia, S.C. to whom I will and bequeath the same, after the death of said Margaret Ritchie. And if she should die before I die, then said one thousand dollars is to go direct to said Robert Ritchie to be paid to him by my executor in money or by transferring to him notes and mortgages on hand, as may be most practicable in the judgment of my executor.

Ninth Item I will and bequeath to my great nephew John Peay of Chester, S.C. the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) to be paid to him by my executor in money or by transferring to him notes and mortgages on hand as may be most practicable in the judgment of my executor.

Tenth Item. I will, and devise, and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal, and mixed, and where ever situated to my niece said Mrs Mattie Peay and her children, share and share alike her son said John Peay to be trustee for the shares of such of her children as may be under the age of twenty-one years, giving him power to manage and control, and sell and invest and sell and reinvest the same by private or public sale, as often as he may deem necessary to the benefit of said minors, using the income, and the corpus if necessary, for their maintenance and education, turning over to them ~~over to~~ ^{to} ~~them~~ what ever of it is left when they become of age.

Eleventh Item. I authorize and empower my executor to make all necesstransfers of notes, mortgages, and securities; also to make sales of property, real and personal at private or public sales, as he may deem best, to invest and sell and reinvest as may be necessary; and to receive and make all conveyances, contracts, assignments and transfers, that may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this will; and to complete any contracts or sales or purchases that I may leave incomplete, under bond for title or otherwise; giving him as my executor full power for all purposes with out any order of Court.

Twelfth Item. I nominate and appoint Ulysses Lewis of Atlanta, Georgia, to be my executor, and I expressly relieve and exempt him from making bond as such executor, and I expressly dispense with the necessity of his making returns to Court; but I direct that he shall make and file an inventory of all my property with the proper Court.

Signed and sealed by me this 30th day of May 1903.

Matilda M. Blumenthal (L.S.)

Signed, declared, and published by the testatrix, Mrs. Matilda Blumenthal, as her last will and testament, consisting of the four pages foregoing, in the presence of us who subscribe our names hereto as witnesses in the presence of said testatrix, at her instance and request and in the presence of each other. She signing in our presence and we ^{signing} in her presence.

Whereas I, Matilda M. Blumenthal, did on the 30th day of May 1903, sign, seal, declare and publish my last will and testament, in the presence of J. Wylie Smith, Roundel Calhoun, and Frank Lewis, who signed the said will and testament as witnesses; and whereas, I am desirous of making some alterations in said last will and testament, as shown in this Codicil thereto, I, therefore, make and publish this codicil to said last will and testament as follows:

1. I will and bequeath and direct that in case my sister Mrs. Barbara Corder should die before I, die, then in that event, the two thousand dollars ($2000) bequeathed to her in the sixth item of my said last will and testament shall go to her daughter my niece, Mattie Peay and her children except her son John Peay is not to receive any part of it.

2. I hereby revoke and annul and cancel the ninth item of said last will and testament which bequeathed five hundred dollars ($500) to my great nephew John Peay of Chester S. C.

3. I will and bequeath to my friend and attorney, Ulysses Lewis, the sum of three hundred dollars ($300).

4. I will and bequeath to my young friend Miss Cephalie Lewis, daughter of Ulysses Lewis, the sum of three hundred dollars ($300).

5. I hereby revoke and annul the appointment of said John Peay as trustee for his mother, said Mattie Peay and her children.

and I also revoke all powers as such Trustee and Trusteeship, as provided in said last will and testament, particularly as appears in the fifth item and tenth item of said last will and testament.

6. I hereby revoke and annul ^{of} bequests or bequest ^{made} to said John Peay in said last will and testament, of money or property or share or shares of my property whatever, mentioned or referred to or included therein as one of the children of said Mattie Peay or otherwise, especially as shown in the fifth item and ninth item and tenth item of said last will and testament; and I will, devise and bequeath that all property or share or shares that would have fallen in any wise to said John Peay under said last will and testament shall go to his mother said Mattie Peay and her children except him said John Peay who is to receive nothing under my last will and testament and is not to have any rights or powers as Trustee or other wise there under, nor under this codicil. 7. Whatever property or shares is bequeathed to said Mattie Peay and her children in said last will and testament and in this codicil, are to go to them, except said John Peay, in fee simple absolutely without the intervention of any Trustee or Trusteeship.

8. Said last will and testament is to stand as it is, except as altered in the particulars provided and expressed in this codicil.

As witness my hand and seal this 20th day of January, A.D. 1910
Mrs. Matilda M. Blumenthal (L.S.)
