A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Nancy Hayes Fulmer, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J. T. Hayes the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Nancy Hayes Fulmer is proved by the oath and examination of Bettie Wiggins and Louise Swan, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Nancy Hayes Fulmer; that the said Nancy Hayes Fulmer, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 15th day of July, 1931.

And this Deponent further saith, That the said Nancy Hayes Fulmer the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Nancy Hayes Fulmer was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

Generally sworn and subscribed,
 this 14th day of November, 1932,
 before me.

J. E. Keener
 Clerk Superior Court.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Nancy Hayes Fulmer, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

This 14th day of November, 1932.

J. E. Keener,
 Clerk Superior Court.

Will of Nancy Hayes Fulmer

I, Nancy Hayes Fulmer, of Tomalla, Cherokee County, North Carolina, being of sound mind, do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and I hereby revoke all former wills made by me.

After all my just debts are paid, including my funeral expense, I will, bequeath and devise my property as follows:

First I will and bequeath to my brother J. T. Hayes, all money due me, at my death, by J. E. Coburn of Bryson City, N. C., the amount of which, is fully set out in a contract, made on the 1st day of April 1927 between J. E. Coburn and myself. I hold as collateral, as set out in said contract, ten

(10) Shares of Alaska Lumber Company stock and I hereby direct my executor, hereinafter named, to deliver to J.E. Coburn, the ten (10) shares of stock, as soon as he has paid the amount due, as set out in the contract above referred to.

Second I will and bequeath to my sister, M.E. Leatherwood such of my clothing as she may want, one heavy white bed spread, one Cameo brooch, my Bible, my Hymn Book, Fountain Pen and Father's Picture, in a frame.

Third I will and bequeath to my niece Addie Leatherwood the family records I have kept, to be preserved and taken care of; also, any money she may owe me at my death.

Fourth I will and bequeath to my niece Lela Hayes the furniture in my room, with my bed, to remain as it is.

Fifth I will and bequeath to my niece Helen Hayes, two quilts and one plaid blanket.

Sixth I will and bequeath to my niece Jennie Swain, one student's lamp, one white counterpane and embroidered dresser scarf.

Seventh I will and bequeath to my niece Mattie Leatherwood one signet gold ring.

Eighth I will and bequeath to my niece Hattie Farmer, one heavy gold ring.

There are some other things, such as bed quilts, sheets, towels and other little things that I hope can be divided without contention.

My brother Jeff Hayes furnished me room and board for a number of years and I am leaving what I have to him to pay for any trouble I have been.

I hereby appoint J.T. Hayes as executor of this my last will, he to serve without having to give bond.

In testimony whereof, I have set my hand and seal, on this the 15th day of July 1931.

Nancy Hayes Fulmer (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Nancy Hayes Fulmer, as and for her last will, in the presence of us, who at her request, and in her presence and the presence of one another, sign our respective names, as subscribing witnesses.
