Letha Anderson

North Carolina - Cherokee County - In the Superior Court.
In re the last Will of Letta Anderson, deceased.

On this 15th day of April, 1929 before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, a paper writing, purporting to be the last will of Letta Anderson, deceased, is offered for probate by Dolly Anderson, Ned Dolly Thompson, One of the Beneficiaries named therein, and thereupon it is proven by the Oath of C.S. Anderson, a credible person, that the said paper writing was found among the valuable papers and effects of Letta Anderson after her death; and it is further proven by the Oaths of L.E.
Payles, W.W. Hyde and J.W. Thompson, that each of said parties knows the handwriting of said Letta Anderson, and that each of said parties, upon Oath that he truly believes that such will and every part thereof is in the handwriting of said Letta Anderson, whom they purport to be, and whose name is subscribed thereto.

Whereupon, it is adjudged that the paper writing offered for probate is the last will of said Letta Anderson, deceased, and the same is admitted to probate and ordered spread upon the Records of Wells in this office, and the same is adjudged to be duly proven

This April 15th, 1929

P.C. Hyatt
Clerk Superior Court

state of North Carolina } ss. On the Superior Court.
Cherokee County,

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah Addie Leatherwood, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by G.W. Walker the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Sarah Addie Leatherwood is proved by the oath and examination of G.W. Candler and Neil Davidson, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah Addie Leatherwood; that the said Sarah Addie Leatherwood, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 4th day of May, 1920.

And This Deponent further saith, that the said Sarah Addie Leatherwood the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix.
And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponents his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Sarah Addie Leatherwood was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent:
And further these deponents say not.

Swarly sworn and subscribed, this 16th day of October, 1929,

G.W. Candler
Neil Davidson

Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina } ss, in the Superior Court.
Cherokee County.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the ~~Court~~ said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of Sarah Adie Leatherwood, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded and filed.

Andrews, N. C.

May 4th, 1920.

I, Sarah Adeline Leatherwood of Andrews, North Carolina being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First, My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second, I will and bequeath to Della McKelly at Isabella Tennessee, One hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

Third, I give and bequeath to my beloved nieces, Jannie Best, Lizzie Robinson, Mattie Best and Hattie Hicks all of my real estate and solvent credits, and any money that I might have on hand in or out of the banks.

Fourth, I give and bequeath to the female children of the above named nieces all my household goods consisting of beds, furniture etc.,

Fifth, I hereby constitute and appoint my trusty friend, John W. Walker, my lawful executor to all the intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intents and meaning of the same, and every part and clause thereof-- hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I the said, Sarah Adeline Leatherwood, do hereunto set my hand and seal, this the 4th day of May, 1920.

Sarah Adie Leatherwood (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Sarah Adeline Leatherwood to be her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at her request and in her presence (and in the presence of each other,) do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
