In the Superior Court,
Before the Clerk

In the matter of.

The last will and testament of Solomon W.
Flishman, deceased.

On this 19 day of April, 1917, an Examined copy of the last will and testament of Solomon W. Flishman, deceased, a resident of the City of Richmond and State of Virginia, and a duly certified copy of the probate of such will by the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond, State of Virginia, is produced before the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of Cherokee County, was duly afforded for probate by L.J. Morris and Virginia Trust Company, executors and trustees under the said will by and through their attorneys.

And it appearing that the said will has been duly proven and admitted to probate before the Chamerry Court of the City of Richmond and State of Virginia, and it further appearing that the said Solomon
W. Flishman was a resident of the said City of Richmond and State of Virginia, and it appearing from such verification that such will has been duly executed according to the laws of the State of North Carolina, and duly proven by the oaths of Irving J.
Thoms and R. L. Morley, subscribing witnesses to the same.

It is therefore ordered that the said examined copy of the said will, with the certificate of its probate before the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond, State of Virginia, be allowed, filed and recorded as the will of said Solomon W. Flishman, in the same manner as if the original and not the copy of said will had been produced, proven and allowed.

A. L. Johnson
Clerk Superior Court

I, Solomon W. Hickman, of the City of Richmond, Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, do make this last will and testament as follows, hereby revoking all former wills at any time heretofore made by me.

First, I direct all my Just debts paid as soon after my death as is practicable.

Second: I wish and direct that a neat stone, laid there over the graves of my sisters, shall be placed at the head of my grave, but no shaft or monument, and I request my Executors to place a floral pall on my casket.

Third, I give and bequeath to Rita Moshley, daughter of my nephew, Willie, and Mamie Moshley, the sum of one thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), which sum shall be held by my Executors hereinafter named, as trustee, for her benefit, and to pay over to her when she becomes twenty one years of age. But if in the judgment of said Executors, they deem it expedient and advisable to pay over the said sum to her before she attains the age of twenty one years then I authorize them to pay over to do so. If the said Rita Moshley shall die before the said sum of one thousand Dollars is paid over to her, then I direct that the said sum shall be paid to her mother, Mamie Moshley.

Fourth, I give and bequeath to my nephew, Sidney Moshley, son of my sister, Clara Moshley, and his husband Augustus Moshley, the sum of three thousand Dollars ($3000.00).

Fifth, I give and bequeath to Clara and Sidney Moshley Jr., daughter and son respectively of my nephew Sidney, and Jannie Moshley, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) each to be held in trust for them by my Executors, and paid over to them when they respectively attain the age of twenty one years. If my Executors shall deem it expedient and advisable to pay over said legacy to both or either of said legates before attaining the age of twenty one years then I do authorize and empower them to pay said legacy to either or both of said legates at any time they may deem it wise and expedient to do so, but he must that either or both of said legates shall die before receiving their legacy, then the legacy of the one so dying shall be paid to their father, Sidney Moshley Sr.

Sixth, I give and bequeath to John Cole, our faithful cook, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).

Seventh, I give and bequeath to our faithful housemaid, Mary Louie Watkins, wife of Edward Watkins, the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

Eight, I give and bequeath to Arthur Long, Jr., the son of Arthur J. and Minnie Long, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars $500 to be paid to him when he attains the age of twenty one years, the interest on said sum from the time of my death until the said Arthur Long, Jr., attains the age of twenty one years shall accumulate and be paid over to him, along with the said legacy of Five Hundred Dollars when he attains his majority, in the event that he should die before attaining the age of twenty one years, then the said sum of Five Hundred Dollars, together with any accumulated interest shall revert to my estate.

Ninth: I give and bequeath to the following institutions the amounts set opposite their names respectively:

To the Masonic Home of Virginia, in Richmond Virginia (27, Chestnut Street) Five Hundred Dollars for endowment fund.

To the Childrens Ward in Memorial Hospital, of Richmond, Virginia (Mrs. Charles Rodms, President) Two Hundred Dollars. $200.00

To the Jewish Neighborhood House of Richmond Virginia (Miss Pauline Shaliman, President) Two Hundred Dollars $200.00

I wish, I direct that all my debts, whether evidenced by notes accounts or otherwise, owing to me by my brothers Lewis H. Flushman and Simon Flushman, at the time of my death shall be cancelled and they shall be entirely released from the payment of any such debts (Page Two) 107

Eleventh: I direct that the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) shall be paid to each and every employ of Flushman, Morris & Company, Incorporated, who shall have been in its employ for twelve months or more preceding my death.

Twelfth: I give and bequeath to my two nieces and adopted daughters, Ruth and Kate, all of my household and kitchen furniture, boxes, pictures china and silverware, to be equally divided between them.

Thirteenth: I direct my Executors to set aside the sum of Ten thousand ($10,000.00) the income from which shall be paid monthly to my brother, Lewis Flickman, of Sacramento, Georgia during his lifetime. At his death my said brother, I direct that the said sum shall revert to my estate.

Fourteenth: I will and direct that my brother, Isaac Flickman, shall be maintained by my estate so long as he lives. I direct that my Executors shall send check or draft for Eight Five Dollars ($85.00) to Mr Hope Pitman, Baltimore, Maryland. (Wife of Mr. Magdalene) on the fifth day of February, May, August and November of each year, for my brother Isaac, food and that said Executors pay any bill for clothing or other necessities for my said brother. I most specially desire that the above mentioned, when he dies, I wish his body removed to Richmond, Virginia, and buried in my lower section in the cemetery, and I wish a most slow fire that run my sisters, Clara and Sabina's graves to be placed over him.

Fifteenth: All the rest and residues of my estate be held by my Executors in trust for my two nieces, Ruth and Kate Trouserman, and the interest therefrom paid to them in quarterly installments during their respective lifetimes. Upon the marriage of either of my said nieces. I direct that the sum of Ten thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) shall be paid to such niece, and at the same time a like sum of Ten thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) shall be set aside and invested for the other niece and shall be paid over to such other niece at any time she so request. I direct that at the expiration of each period of five years after my death, there shall be paid to my nieces, if they so desire, the sum of five thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) ^{that} out of the principal of the said trust estate. In the event at any time my Executors shall deem it necessary or expedient to either of my said nieces who may then be married, that my said Executors are authorized to pay out of the principal of the said trust estate to such married niece such amount of money as they may deem necessary and proper; and in the event that any such payment is so made to such married niece, then the said Executors shall at the same time set aside and invest a like amount for my other niece and pay over the same to such other niece at any time upon her request.

If either one of my nieces should die without having been married, then her interest in my estate shall immediately cease, and such interest shall go to the surviving niece in the same manner and to the same extent as it was vested in the niece so dying. But if either one or both of my said nieces shall marry, then I direct that the one or more so dying shall have the right at her or their death to designate, by a writing in the nature of a last will and testament, to whom she shall go to share the income from which such niece was entitled at the time of her death.

But all the foregoing of this, the Fifteenth Clause of my will are to be understood as subordinate to the provisions for the maintenance of my brother Isaac contained in the Fourteenth Clause of this will. Sixteenth: I nominate and appoint my friend L. J. Morris and the Virginia Trust Company as my Executors and trustees of this last will, and I request that no surety be required of either of them upon their qualifications as Executors. I direct that there shall be no inventory of my estate. I demand that my nieces fully connect with the said Executors in the management and handling of whatever property they may own.

I authorize and empower my said Executors and trustees to hold any securities which may come into their hands or to sell the same whenever in either property as they may deem it best. I also authorize and empower my said Executors and Trustees to sell my real estate owned by me at the time of my death, either at public auctions or private sale, and upon such terms a dry down bid and no purchase from said Executors or Trustees shall be required to me to the application of the purchase money; and I further direct that in carrying out the provisions of this will according to this best judgment, my said Executors and Trustees are not to be responsible or liable for any money advanced to my executors as per Clause Fifthteenth of my will. Given under my hand and seal this 4 day of April, 1916.

Solomon W. Flushman. (sac)

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for his last will and testament by Solomon W. Flushman in our presence, who in his presence at his request, and in the presence of one another have hereunto set our hands at actual by witnesses Irving J. Straus

R. B. Morley.

Virginia

In the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond.
the 22nd day of January, 1917.

A paper writing, bearing date the fourth day of April 1916 ~~purporting~~ purporting to be the last will and testament of Solomon W. Flushman, decedent, late of this City, was this day produced to the Court by Christiana Gordon & Christiana attorneys for the Executors and offered for proof; and was duly proved in all respects to the satisfaction of the Court by the oaths of Irving J. Straus and R. B. Morley, the subscribing witnesses thereto.

Thereupon the said paper writing is established and ordered to be recorded as and for the last will and testament of the said Solomon W. Flushman decedent.

And on the motion of L. J. Morris and the Virginia Trust Company the only Executors named in said they were permitted by the Court to qualify as such; and thereupon the said Virginia Trust Company, by L. J. Morris its Secretary who made oath as the said decedent and intent into and acknowledged a mortgage bond as such Executor in the penalty of Two Hundred and fifty Thousand Dollars payable and conditioned according to Law, but without security the Charter of the said Company directing that no security should be required of it on the execution of such bond and the Court deeming it unnecessary, no security is required of said company, the Court being first satisfied however from an examination of the said L. J. Morris its Secretary on oath as to the sufficiency of said company. And L. J. Morris the other Executor named in said will made oath as the said decedent and intent into and acknowledged a bond as such Executor in the penalty of Two Hundred and fifty Thousand Dollars payable and conditioned according to Law but without security, the said will directing that none should be required to him. And certificate is granted the said L. J. Morris and Virginia Trust Company for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

Commissioners of Virginia to wit
In the Clerk's Office of the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond.
I Charles O. Smith Clerk of the City of Richmond in the State of Virginia do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy from the records of said Court.
