North Carolina. In Superior Court,
Cherokee County.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the exemplification of the record hereinafter mentioned, that the last will and testament of Victor H. Olmsted, deceased, a citizen of Arlington County, and State of Virginia, has been duly proven and allowed in the proper Court of probate of said County and State, all conforming to the laws of said State; and it further appearing that the said Victor H. Olmsted left property in the County of Cherokee and State of North Carolina; it is therefore ordered and adjudged that the exemplification of said Will and of its probate in the proper Court of Arlington County and State of Virginia which has been produced and exhibited here duly certified and authenticated, be allowed, filed and recorded in this Court in the same manner as if the original and not the Copy had been produced, proved and allowed before the undersigned Clerk. And it appearing affirmatively in the certified probate or exemplification of the Will aforesaid that the said Will is executed according to the laws of the State of North Carolina, hereupon it is adjudged that the said will has been duly proved and that the same is the last will and testament of the said Victor H. Olmsted, and it is ordered that the same, together with this certificate, be recorded and filed.
This the 5th day of May 1926. E. E. Davis.
