Cherokee County

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of W. N. Mashburn deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by J. A. Newbree, a subscribing witness therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said W. N. Mashburn is proved by the oath and examination of J. A. Newbree, J. E. Carter and Will Dockery, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself, depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of W. N. Mashburn; that the said W. N. Mashburn, in the presence of the deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 25th day of Sept. 1929.

And the deponent further saith, that the said W. N. Mashburn, the testator, aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And the deponent further saith that at the ^{same} time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said W. N. Mashburn was of sound mind and memory, of free age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last Will and Testament of W. N. Mashburn, deceased. Let said Will, together with the probate, be recorded as filed.

This 21st day of January, 1930.

P. C. Hyatt
Clerk Superior Court

North Carolina
Cherokee County,

J. N. Mashburn of the aforesaid County and State being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

- First, My executor hereinafter named shall give my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my family, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first money which may come into his hands belonging to my Estate.
- Second, I give and devise to my beloved Wife Angela Lina Mashburn, all of my Property of every description both Real and Personal not otherwise disposed of, for her natural life, in satisfaction of her dower.
- Third, I give and bequeath to my son Fred Mashburn the sum of Five Dollars to be paid by my Executor within two years from the date of my death, out of the money belonging to my Estate not otherwise disposed of (which sum together with the advances he has had from me, will make him a fair and equitable portion according to the value of my estate).

Fourth, my will and desire is, that all the Residue of my Estate (if any) after the death of my beloved wife Angelina Mashburn be sold by my Executor or his Successor and the debts owing to me (if any) Collected. If there should be any Surplus over and above the Payment of debts, expenses Legacies that said surplus shall be equally divided and paid over to my following named Children, Orrville Mashburn, Alice Peck, Mary Carross, Charlie Mashburn, Luina Mashburn, Binnie Doekery.

Fifth, I hereby constitute and appoint my son Orrville Mashburn my lawful Executor to all intents and purposes, to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent and meaning of the same and every part and Clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills and Testaments by me heretofore made, In witness whereof I the said W. H. Mashburn do hereto set my hand and seal, This 25th day of Sept 1929.

W. H. Mashburn.

Signed, Sealed, Published and declared by the said W. H. Mashburn to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.

Witnesses.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Carry J. Holloway, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by ^{the executor} therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Carry J. Holloway is proved by the oath and examination of G. R. Porter and L. M. Ellis, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Carry J. Holloway; that the said Carry J. Holloway, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 14th day of June, 1930.

And this Deponent further saith, that the said Carry J. Holloway the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her, and exhibited to be her Last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Carry J. Holloway was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under
