} ss. In the Superior Court.

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of William Caloway Barring, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Missouri Barring the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Will Caloway Barring is proved by oath and examination of Fred Bryant and Mary Hill, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of William Caloway Barring; that the said William Caloway Barring, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 12th day of August, 1930.

And this deponent further saith, that the said William Caloway Barring the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the ^{same} time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said William Caloway Barring was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; and further these deponents say not.
